Veteran to signal opening of wartime weekend at museum

A CANNOCK World War II veteran will officially open a two-day wartime event at the Staffordshire Regiment Museum this weekend.

The museum, at Whittington Barracks, is playing host to Home Front demonstrations, period weapons and interactive activities on both Saturday and Sunday.

It has been organised to coincide with the anniversary of Operation Market Garden, a huge Allied airborne operation designed to force German soldiers out of Holland, which took place on September 17,1944.

The operation included the Battle of Arnhem, the engagement that the film A Bridge Too Far was based on, where many thousands of British soldiers lost their lives.

Operation Market Garden is commemorated every year in Holland with hundreds of re-enactors travelling to take part. It is rarely marked in the UK.

The Staffordshire Regiment Museum and the WWII Living History Association aim to change that with an immersive commemorative re-enactment.

And a veteran of the failed mission, George Parry, will be the honorary guest at the Barracks.

Infantry

He was immortalised in one of the most famous photographs of the entire conflict, which showed Signaller Parry being led away at gun point by German infantry.

Ahead of him, a Lieutenant Reynolds – who along with Mr Parry and Lt Col McCardie were under the impression they were being led away to be shot – gave a two-fingered salute to the smiling German cameraman.

"I thought if Reynolds keeps doing this to the guards we are definitely going to stop a bullet here," Mr Parry, aged 94, said.

"Then Lt Reynolds shouted 'it's no good sir, no good, it's too late'.

"I don't know what he was planning but Col McCardie was captured then and there."

Mr Parry, then aged 27, was detained in a German Prisoner of War camp. He still lives with his wife Joyce in Cannock and the couple have just celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

Whittington Barracks opens its doors from 10am-4pm on both days.

Fork truck firm lands £10m deal

A CANNOCK-based forklift truck supplier has landed a £10m deal with DIY giant Homebase.

Briggs Equipment, of Orbital Way, will supply and maintain around 170 Yale trucks over the next five years for use in Homebase's net-work of more than 350 stores.

Jason Rudkin, national account manager at Briggs Equipment, said: "Homebase currently operates a fleet of around 680 Yale machines and the company has been extremely pleased with the performance and reliability of the equipment.

"They were also looking for a national service provider who could work in partnership with them.

"Briggs are delighted to be supporting Homebase to provide world-class equipment coupled with a national service and support structure."

Short-term

He added the firm – which will also service support around 400 smaller items of equipment for Homebase – would be able to supply extra trucks on a short-term hire basis during peak periods.

During a visit to the company's Cannock store, Clive Hillman, store equipment manager at Homebase parent company Home Retail Group, said: "The efficient movement of stock is essential and Yale machines have continued to deliver excellent uptime along with operator safety and comfort."

Chris Meinecke, Briggs' chief operating officer, said: "We will be working closely with Homebase to ensure they get the best value and performance from their Yale fleet."

Lorry driver dies in crash

A LORRY driver from Cannock died when he was thrown out of a van in a four-vehicle crash on the M54.

Chris Tolley, who was in his 50s, was confirmed dead at the scene following the crash on the westbound carriageway between Junctions 3 and 4 at 8.30am on Monday.

Mr Tolley, of Trinity Close, worked at Pentalver Cannock Ltd.

CHILD CENTRE HOPE FOR VITAL LIFELINE

COUNCILLORS were today (Thursday) being told that a vital children's centre in Cannock could close without a one-off funding lifeline.

Cannock Chase Council's cabinet is being asked to rubber-stamp a £22,000 grant for the West Chadsmoor Family Centre, in Princess Street.

Council leader George Adamson has put the issue on the agenda after the centre appealed for help.

A council report said that without the centre, anti-social behaviour in the West Chadsmoor area would increase.

It is believed that funding to keep the centre running is likely to be secured from the next financial year onwards, but until April 2012 a £22,000 shortfall exists.

Traditionally the centre has been supported with grants from the Coalfields Regeneration Trust, SureStart and the National Lottery, as well as banks and other commercial organisations.

But in recent years funding has dried up, leading the centre to draw up a new three-year 2012-2015 funding strategy.

This will include a £30,000 annual grant from Staffordshire County Council, which has already provided £25,000 to meet the centre's current shortfall.

Until April 1 funds are in short supply, leading to the emergency appeal to Cannock Chase Council.

A report to the meeting says: "If the West Chadsmoor Family Centre is unable to secure funding to meet its 2011-12 funding gap, the centre will close.

"This will result in the loss of valuable services to the West Chadsmoor community and resulting in an increase in anti-social behaviour and other problems associated with the management of the housing stock.

"Should Cabinet wish to pursue this course of action, it is proposed that the £22,000 is met through equal contributions from the Housing Revenue Account and the General Fund."

The report, made by the council's head of financial management and head of housing, revealed that West Chadsmoor Family Centre Limited registered a loss of £43,000 earlier this year, reflecting a reduction in income combined with associated redundancy costs.

The centre opened in 1996 and in recent years has extended its services to include assistance for elderly residents and an under-14 youth club.

Today's cabinet meeting begins at 5.45pm.

School marks 40 years

A PRIMARY school in Rugeley is celebrating its 40th birthday by releasing 400 blue and red helium balloons – representing all of its staff and pupils.

Etching Hill Primary, in Penk Drive North, will launch its celebrations tomorrow (Friday) with past and present staff and pupils. To mark the milestone, there will be games, activities and tours throughout the day.

Former pupil Lisa Weston is now a teaching assistant at the school that her children also attend,

She said: "There have been lots of changes over the years but it has always been a place that cares about the children and their learning."

Over coming months the school will host a range of other events including the burial of a time capsule, similar to one created for the 10th birthday in 1981.

Head Marie Smith is keen for anyone who knows the exact location of the first capsule to get in touch on 01889 256112.

Joseph Barns and Abie Cashmore, both aged six, prepare with fellow pupils for the 40th anniversary celebrations at Etching Hill Primary

Brother's bike ride for Lupus

A HEDNESFORD man has begun training for a 200-mile cycle ride which will raise money for a charity close to his heart.

John Hibbs will attempt to cycle the distance from Lupus Way, Ellesmere Port, to Lupus Street in Westminster in a single day next June.

He will be undertaking the challenge in aid of the West Midlands Lupus Group. His sister Viki was diagnosed with the condition, for which there is no cure, in 2008.

John, aged 33, has already run a number of marathons, raising thousands of pounds for the charity.

Lupus causes the body's immune system to go into overdrive and starts to attack itself. It is believed that more than 50,000 people throughout the UK have the condition and of those, 90 per cent are female.

John said: "As I am new to cycling, over the coming months I will be looking to join a local cycling club to ensure that I am doing the right training and hopefully pick up some tips.

"We are in the early stages of planning the event but I have picked a route that will take me through Cannock on the day so I hope we can really make an occasion out of it."

So far John has raised £14,000 and hopes to hit the £15,000 by the new year.

He added: "I am looking for sponsors to support the event. All donations will go directly to the charity. If anyone feels they can help, I would ask them to get in touch."

Shot Pc in speed march through capital

A POLICE officer from Rugeley, who has recovered from being shot on patrol, is to take part in a gruelling 26-mile speed march through London.

Pc Geoff King, a former Royal Marine, will be part of a team of more than 100 former commandos raising funds for the Royal Marines' Association on November 12.

Pc King, aged 38, was shot twice in 2007 in Wolverhampton but has recovered to be physically strong enough to do the speed march which will start from The Mall and pass a number of capital landmarks. Along the route the former commandos will call at Downing Street to meet Home Secretary Theresa May and the First Sea Lord, Admiral Mark Stanhope.

On completion of the run they will be met by the Royal Marines Corps of Drums at Waterloo Place. They will be marched onto The Mall and down to the Royal Marines National Memorial close to Admiralty Arch where a wreath will be laid in memory of those Royal Marines that have paid the ultimate sacrifice.

Pc King, a father-of-one, said he was training by running over Cannock Chase and the area around Rugeley as well as working out in Rugeley Leisure Centre. To sponsor him to visit www.bmy charity.com/geoffking

Pc King, based at Bloxwich, said: "I was in the Royal Marines for nine years from 1990 to 1999," He is a member of the Commando 999 group that is made up for former marines who are now in the emergency services.

Pc King received a bravery award from West Midlands Police for his actions in the wake of his shooting in the shoulder and upper body.

Monument will remember old colliery workers

Memorial planned to honour town's pitmen

A NEW mining memorial is being planned for Rugeley to remember all those who worked at the town's two collieries.

Organisers are holding a meeting next month will discuss launching a fund to pay for it. It takes place at Lea Hall Miners' Welfare Centre and Social Club in Sandy Lane on Sunday, October 2, at 6pm.

The monument will act as a memorial to both the Lea Hall and Brereton collieries. One of the organisers is Brian Batey from Handsacre, whose late father and brother Ian, who also lives in the village, were both miners.

"The meeting will be a chance for people to join a new ex-mine workers of Rugeley memorial fund committee," Mr Batey said.

Facebook

A site for the memorial has yet to be finalised and the amount of money that will need to be raised has yet to be costed.

Mr Batey, aged 53, said there was already a raft of support from the area for the new memorial. "We are also looking for ideas for how money can be raised," he added.

A Facebook site has been created for the project. Once a committee has been set up and the site and design have been agreed on an application will be submitted to Cannock Chase Council for planning permission.

There are already mining memorials in Hednesford town centre – in the form of a Davy lamp – and at Queens Square in Cannock.

The old Lea Hall Colliery closed in 1990 – 36 years after it had opened. Brereton Colliery shut in 1960.

Visitors are fair game

THOUSANDS of people will flock to the Midland Game Fair at Weston Park this weekend. Tickets are £17 per adult (£15 in advance) and £6 for children aged four to14 (£5 in advance). Weekend tickets are also available. The event is open from 8am to 7pm on both Saturday and Sunday with last admission at 3.30pm.

Yoga teacher's call for more men

A YOGA teacher is urging men from across Cannock to test out their moves for free at her weekly class.

Sue Tupling hosts a 90 minute session at 7pm, every Monday night, at Hayes Green Community Centre, in Heath Hayes.

It is estimated almost half a million people in the UK practise yoga but only five per cent of these are men, so during September and October the classes will be free to all new males that attend.

Sue said: "I think men see yoga as not being macho enough or they worry they are too inflexible. In the class members focus on their bodies and breathing so they leave feeling stretched and energised, yet relaxed and focussed, which is very good for getting work done."

Yoga offers a whole body workout improving muscular tone, strength, stamina and flexibility while offering a sense of wholeness and relaxation.

School earns global status

TWO years of hard work has been rewarded with an international award for staff and pupils at a Cannock school.

Youngsters at Bridgtown Primary, in North Street, have been linking up with their counterparts in other parts of the world as part of a project organised by the British Council.

To gain the global status, staff had to organise seven 'international days' when pupils devoted their lesson time to learning how schools are run across the continents.

Pupils have shared lesson plans on maths, geography and other subjects with a school in Ghana and sent each other power-point presentations of the inside of their classrooms.

They have also exchanged home-made Christmas cards with children in Norway, Romania and France, taken part in an international-themed sports day and supported an orphanage in Kenya.

Teacher Amanda Beard was delighted with the accreditation, adding the project had been very useful.

Reward offer on theft of rail cable

A £1,000 reward has been offered for information leading to the prosecution of metal thieves who stole signal cable from the railway lines between Wolverhampton and Stafford.

Network Rail, which is responsible for railway tracks, will have to pay tens of thousands of pounds in compensation to rail companies.

Passengers faced 20-minute delays for most of Monday due to multiple signal failures in Penkridge brought on by Sunday's theft.

About 525ft of cable was taken from the track off Paradise Lane, near Brinsford and Slade Heath, at around 11.45pm.

Tools

Network Rail had to bring in technicians overnight and get replacement cable, causing delays to London Midland, Virgin and Cross-Country services.

Spokesman Keith Lumley said: "We are determined to beat this crime and are using various tools to do just that, such as covert cameras, trembler alarms and forensic liquid.

"But we need the help of the travelling public and people who live near the railway to be our eyes and ears.

"If they see or hear anything suspicious, report it either to the British Transport Police on 0800 405040 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111."

Groups to combine for meeting

TWO local history groups are combining for a meeting next week.

Cheslyn Hay & District Local History Society will join friends from Great Wyrley History Society for the meeting on Monday, September 19.

Guest speakers will be John Devey, with old tales of Churchbridge and Paul Ford on 'A mystery photograph album of an Edwardian lady'.

The meeting is at Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School Theatre, in Hall Lane, from 7.30pm. Admission is £1.

Fundraising table top sale

PENKRIDGE Goodies and other charities are holing a table top sale at the Peace Memorial Hall, Pinfold Lane, Penkridge on Saturday (September 17). Doors open at 10am and admission is 30p.

Stalls will include bric-a-brac, toys and game, homemade preserves and produce, cakes and a tombola.

Refreshments will be available.

Art studios open to public

CHASE Terrace artist Carole Baker will be among those opening up to the public over the next two weekends.

More than 40 artists in all will be taking part in Staffordshire's 'Enjoy Art' Open Studios event. Visitors can drop in on the artists on September 17 and 18 and again the following weekend. Carole's Sunnyside studio, at Rugeley Road, Chase Terrace, will be open from 10am to 5pm each day.

Carole will demonstrate her work, discuss her techniques and give an insight into the life of a professional artist. Workshops are also available to book on 01543 676895 or at www.carolebaker.com

The Open Studios was established in 2002 and showcases a wealth of talent throughout the county, including Rugeley artist Beth Paynter who will be showing off her quirky sculptures.

Using wood and ceramic to form pieces for the home and garden, Beth bases much of her work on her love for animals. A collection of her work will be on display at 75, St Michaels Road, Brereton, from 9am - 9pm, both weekends.

Review on waste decision

THE decision to allow a controversial incinerator to open near Cannock is to be reviewed after suggestions that planners may have been swayed by an £80,000 offer by company Biffa to spend on community activities.

The proposed plant at Kingswood Lakeside Park had been given the final go-ahead by Staffordshire County Council in July after a stormy passage through the application process.

But concerns have since been raised over whether an offer by Biffa to fund local activities may have influenced the decision. As a result, the planning committee is to debate the issue once more, sparking hope among protesters that the scheme might be thrown out.

The new crunch meeting was set to take place today (Thursday) at the county's base in Stafford.

Council bosses say expert legal advice was sought after concerns were raised by committee members. Lawyers have since indicated that the offer should not have had any influence on their decision.

Writer's show to be aired

A CANNOCK writer's latest work is set to hit the screens next year.

Jed Mercurio, who penned Bodies and Cardiac Arrest, has written and produced a five-part show called Line of Duty, which will be broadcast early next year.

Two young West Midlands actors have won parts in the drama, which stars Neil Morrissey and Gina McKee.

Gregory Piper, aged 13, and Jordyn-Eve Davis-Greene, 11, have both landed roles in the series, which is based on a mistaken police shooting.

Gregory, a pupil at Windsor High in Halesown, plays Ryan Pilkington, a troubled youngster who gets caught up in the action.

The teenager, of Haden Close, Dudley, will appear in every episode and is at the centre of a major storyline when he takes a character hostage.

His fellow drama school pupil Jordyn-Eve, of Whittington Road in Stourbridge, will play Natalie Tate, the daughter of a corrupt detective inspector played by Lennie James.

Gregory and Jordyn-Eve both attend the group Dramaworkshop, run by Esther Stanford, 33, and based at Chawn Hill Church in Stourbridge.

Miss Stanford set up the drama group a year ago, having appeared in EastEnders, The Bill and Heartbeat.

Dramaworkshop is linked to First Act Workshops in Birmingham, which arranges its auditions.

The show is expected to be screened on television early next year.

Reunion date for old pupils

OLD school pals are invited to a reunion next Friday (September 23).

The gathering brings together ex-pupils of Cannock Grammar School and tales place at the Barns Hotel and Restaurant, in Cocksparrow Lane, Huntington. The evening includes a two-course meal and dancing to the "Reunion" group.

Tickets are priced at £22.50, Call Diane Tolley on01922 414417 for more details or visit www.cgsfpa.co.uk.

Photographs showing the history of the school, which existed from 1955 until 1980, will be on display.

Club vows to help in hunt for cup medals

The 1968 winners' medal

WEST Bromwich Albion have offered their help in the hunt for two FA Cup winners' medals belonging to two club greats.

The medals celebrated the Baggies' 1931 and 1968 Cup wins. The first was awarded to long-serving boss Fred Everiss, who managed the club from 1902-48. The 1931 triumph over rivals Birmingham was the first time Albion had lifted the cup.

The other medal was awarded to his son Alan, a director and secretary at the club for 66 years, following the 1968 Wembley win over Everton.

They were stolen from the Great Wyrley home of Alan's daughter-in-law Pam Everiss. Describing the father and son as "part of this club's very fabric", Albion bosses have issued their own appeal for the medals' return.

Pam Everiss at her home with son Chris

And club icon Bobby Hope, who played in the 1968 Wembley final, brought in his own medal – identical to the stolen one – to help in the police inquiry.

Raiders broke into the home of 66-year-old Mrs Everiss while she was on holiday, also taking thousands of pounds of jewellery.

Traumatic

Mrs Everiss, who runs the Meteor garage in Lombard Street, West Bromwich, discovered the theft when she returned from Spain.

Club spokesman John Simpson said: "We are deeply saddened to hear about the ordeal that Mrs Everiss is going through.

"Being the victim of a burglary is traumatic enough but to lose possessions of such sentimental value must be heart-breaking.

"Fred and Alan Everiss are part of this club's very fabric and their medals are irreplaceable.

"We plead with those responsible of this crime to return the medals, as well as the jewellery, to their rightful owner as soon as possible."

Life with pencil and brush

ARTISTS have been capturing on canvas a series of Staffordshire landscapes.

The result, a collection called Life with Pencil Brush, has been unveiled at the Museum of Cannock Chase, in Hednesford.

The show features views of Sherbrook Valley and the Iron Age hill fort Castle Ring on Cannock Chase.

It also captures subjects from the natural world – from images of animals and birds, to watercolour studies of flowers.

The exhibition fills the walls of the Valley Road museum's coffee shop. Group members say they share a love of art and enjoy swapping hints and tips with each other. They meet once a week, with members ranging from beginners to those whose works are of a professional standard.

The group hopes the collection will encourage visitors to give art a go.

The show, which runs until October 28, joins permanent exhibitions including a miner's cottage, toys through the decades, a 1940s room and an exhibition on seven centuries of coal.

Call 01543 877666 for more details.

Lantern parades are axed

CHRISTMAS lantern parades in Cannock Chase have been axed due to council cuts.

Last year, 1,000 people attended the events at Elmore Park, Rugeley and Hednesford Park, costing around £7.30 per head.

Cannock Chase District Council has this year refused to continue funding. But it will support parish and town councils if they wish to fund the event.

Brereton and Ravenhill parish councillors have criticised the decision saying they would not be able to afford to fund it themselves.

Councillor Ray Easton said: "The children love the event. It got the whole community getting involved."

Craft fair to aid church

A CRAFT fair takes place at Bourne Methodist Church, Heath Hayes, this weekend.

The free admission event takes place from 10am to 2pm on Saturday, September 17, with a variety of stalls with refreshments. Proceeds will go towards the upkeep of the Hednesford Road building.

Youngsters have designs on dream home

PUPILS in Burntwood took part in a competition to design their dream home.

The competition was run by house-builders David Wilson Mercia after a class from Highfields Primary visited the Victoria Place development in Lichfield. The winning entry came from Sam Evans, who won £20 in vouchers. Classmates Kaela Shillaker and Samuel Whitehouse won £10 and £5 pounds worth of vouchers for second and third place respectively.

Teacher Kelly Weir said: "The children really enjoyed taking part. We visited the development as part of a class project on how homes are built and it's great for the children to have an opportunity to express themselves when it comes to the way their dream home would look."

Taking the plunge for life-saving challenge

A LIFE-saving club in Cheslyn Hay is going to great depths to raise cash for a national charity.

The club, which operates from Cheslyn Hay Leisure Centre, in Saredon Road, will host a sponsored life save on Saturday September 24 and October 1, at 12.30pm to raise money for the Motor Neurone Disease Association.

John Trout, who began teaching at the club when it first opened in 1984, was diagnosed with Motor Neurone Disease in 2007 and now the team wants to offer its support.

During the fundraiser members will aim to rescue as many pretend casualties from the water as possible.

The sessions will be staffed as usual and parents and volunteers will also be on board to help record how many people are rescued from the water.

Pursuit

John, who is now vice-chairman, said: "To do this event the club considered it would not only raise funds but also give members additional inspiration and encouragement in pursuit of their life saving qualifications.

"The response to this idea from the membership and their family members has been amazing."

The incurable and rapidly progressive muscle wasting disease results in the loss of use of the arms and legs, ability to eat, swallow, talk and eventually breathe.

There is currently no effective treatment and all funds raised will go straight to the MND Association, in Northampton, to help them in their research into finding a cure.

Boundary changes on display

INITIAL proposals for new parliamentary constituency boundaries have gone on display in Cannock.

The Boundary Commission for England is conducting a review of constituency boundaries to comply with new rules laid down by Parliament.

The commission is required to significantly reduce the number of constituencies in England and comply with new guidance on electorate size.

The proposals went on display at the council offices in Beecroft Road on Monday (September 12). They will be available to view both there and at the Rugeley district office in Anson Street until December 5.

A family's three generations say farewell to park's lido

Lynne looks back on splashing time

WITH beaming smiles and happy faces, these photographs show three generations of one family splashing about in the lido at Walsall Arboretum.

Lynne Mills, of Great Wyrley, opened up her family album, having spoken of her sadness that the historic park feature is to be scrapped and replaced with modern water jets.

The 59-year-old has spent many happy, lazy afternoons cooling down in the water as a child, a mother and now as a grandmother.

"The lido at Walsall Arboretum just holds so many memories of long, lazy sunny days during the summer holidays," says admin assistant Mrs Mills.

"It is something that all generations can enjoy. The older ones can go and have a paddle while they're keeping an eye on the kids splashing around in it."

The lido at Walsall Arboretum pictured in its heyday in 1969. It will be replaced by a modern 'splash pad'

Regular

Mrs Mills first visited the lido as a child on days out with her mother.

Originally from Sutton Coldfield, Mrs Mills was a regular visitor to Sutton Park but when the family moved to Cannock, Walsall Arboretum was a much closer alternative.

"It was always such a treat to go to the lido," she recalls.

"I used to go with my mother and it was always such a lovely place to go."

When she had her own children Diane, now aged 41, and Michelle, 39, Mrs Mills took them to enjoy the water feature during the six-week summer holidays.

"We used to go to the Walsall Arboretum a lot. In the autumn we used to go to the illuminations and then in the summer it was the lido," she says.

"Of course, the illuminations have also gone now too, which is a shame."

Now, a grandmother to three – Alex, aged 21, Ryan, 11 and Gemma, eight – Mrs Mills still visits the lido every year.

"My grandchildren love it and we've been going every year since they were born and it's something they really look forward to," she says. "We went this summer to make the most of it but it's just such a shame it won't be there anymore."

Daughter Diane, of Hednesford, shared her mother's sadness at the loss of the lido.

"My mum used to take me and my sister when we were young and we always enjoyed it," she says.

Laugh

"It's somewhere I've always taken my children Ryan and Gemma too and they love it. We also used to take the kids to the illuminations in the autumn and they were really upset when that stopped.

"At Walsall Arboretum there was always so much going on like boating on the lake. But they are bringing that back in the future though, so that's something."

For 11-year-old Ryan, the news was met with a mixed reception. "The jets might be all right but I think I'll prefer the pool as it is," he said.

"I've been there lots of times and it's always a good laugh."

The lido dates back more than 50 years but will be replaced by modern interactive water jets in a £175,000 scheme due to start this winter.

Council chiefs had said the lido was in need of repairs and was "not the most hygienic".

Leisure and culture chief Councillor Anthony Harris said: "Yes, the old lido is being replaced by the new splash pad at the end of the summer.

"Traditional lidos have had their day.

"Simply because something was popular in the 1950s doesn't mean we should keep it in 2011.

"It's fair to say that we haven't observed a campaign to keep it and what will replace it will be exciting and popular."

Villagers turn down town idea in survey

MORE than four in five residents of Penkridge want to see it retain its identity as a village. Residents have been surveyed over whether they want to see it described as a village or town as part of work on the new parish plan.

The result showed that 81 per cent wanted to remain as villagers. The plan has been put together over two years by a steering group to help influence the future of Penkridge for the next decade. There has been input from local organisations, focus groups and the residents' survey.

The steering group, chaired by David Calcroft, has now presented the plan to Penkridge parish council, which has agreed to adopt it.

Mr Calcroft said: "The council originally commissioned the project as part of its bid to become accredited as an 'excellent' parish council.

"They wanted a completely independent document which would be a true representation of the views of the residents.

"We think we have delivered just that. The exceptional return rate of the surveys more than validates the views expressed by the people of Penkridge."

Council chairman Councillor Pet Hughes said: "Already, local groups and organisations such as the Monckton Recreation Centre are using the plan to consider their strategic plans for the future."

Copies of the parish plan are being circulated to all parish councillors and Staffordshire County Council and South Staffordshire District Council.

It will also soon be available for residents to read or download from www.letsplanpenkridge.org

Thoughts about park are sought

COMMUNITY volunteers and councillors are working together to promote and support the regeneration of Hednesford Park.

The Friends of Hednesford Park group will be officially set up at a general meeting at the end of the month. It aims to gauge the views of residents, park users, nurseries and schools about how to improve the area and provide events to bring the community closer.

The group is aiming to set up a website and Facebook page to gain vital feedback to ensure the park is developed to the needs of the local area, as well as informing about any future events.

Anyone wishing to attend the general meeting, or give views on the park is asked to email friendsofhednesfordpark@hotmail.co.uk

History meeting

JUNE Pickerill will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of Bridgtown & District Local History Society.

Initiative aimed at dementia patients

A NEW initiative is being rolled out on the wards at Stafford and Cannock Chase Hospitals.

The About Me form is aimed at patients with dementia and is being used to collate useful information about the patient that will help staff treat him or her as an individual.

Clinical nurse specialist Jez Hill is introducing the scheme. He said: "When a patient comes into hospital with a broken leg, or a chest infection, for example, they are sometimes seen as a condition, not a person.

Dislikes

"The 'about me' form gives staff useful information about the person's likes and dislikes and can make a big difference in how staff treat the patient. It's about treating the person as a whole, not just their condition."

The forms, which are available in A&E and on the wards, are filled in by the patient's relative or carer.

It includes practical details like any preferences they may have with communication, eating and drinking, dressing and toileting.

It also gives staff an insight into their likes and dislikes, things such as what line of work they were in, what calms them down and what agitates them.

The children will learn a number of routines, take Streetdance exams and compete in regional competitions.

Save bumblebee plea

VISITORS to Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's headquarters are being asked to sign a petition to help protect bumblebees.

The Bumblebee Conservation Trust is campaigning for the banning of chemicals used as pesticides that are believed to contribute to the loss of the insects from gardens and fields.

The completed petition from the Wolseley Centre at Wolseley Bridge, will be sent to the Secretary of State for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs urging him to ban the use of neonicotinoids. The trust says two bumblebee species have become extinct in the UK. It is also urging supporters to write to MPs in support of the campaign.

The trust is also leading efforts to restore flower-rich habitats in the countryside to help numbers recover. Nationally about 97 per cent of flower-rich grasslands have been lost. Further decline could mean poorer harvests because of the loss of the bees.

Smoke alarms warning

FIREFIGHTERS are renewing warnings to ensure smoke alarms are fitted after a blaze destroyed a family's bathroom.

Crews were called out to Lilac Avenue, in Cannock on Wednesday, September 7. The call was received after neighbours heard a smoke alarm and spotted flames coming from the bathroom window.

No one was at home and the family returned as the fire was being tackled.

Station manager Rich Williams said: "We believe it was caused by a discarded cigarette. Smoke alarms were fitted, which alerted the neighbours to the fire. The family weren't in at the time, but had they been they would have received an early warning from the alarms."

Crews will be out delivering "After the Fire" postcards, displaying posters to make residents aware there has been a fire in their area and to encourage people to book a free home fire risk check.

Trent named one of most polluted rivers

THE RIVER Trent in Staffordshire has been listed as one of 10 waterways in the country where wildlife is under threat because of pollution.

The Trent, which has its source on the southern edge of Biddulph Moor and runs through Rugeley and Stone, forms part of the Our Rivers campaign by the RSPB, WWF, the Angling Trust and the Salmon and Trout Association.

It paints a different picture to that of the Environment Agency, which last month released a list of the 10 most improved rivers in England and Wales.

Conservationists have now criticised that report, saying it presented a rosy view of river health and ignored the fact many waterways are struggling with pollution. The agency has said a multi-billion pound improvement programme is now under way.

Wildlife experts are worried about a section of the river from Stoke-on-Trent to the confluence of the River Tame which is designated "poor" for all fish.

This is because urban pollution has resulted in unacceptable levels of ammonia and phosphate in the water.

Familiar

It means salmon, trout, water voles and other river wildlife are under threat.

Jack Clarke, Our Rivers campaigner, said: "We cannot ignore the continuing threats our native river wildlife faces.

"The stories we hear from people living near these rivers are all too familiar – salmon and trout numbers at a fraction of their former levels, sewage being released directly into the waterway, and riverbeds drying up in the summer due to unsustainable abstraction."

Mark Lloyd, chief executive of the Angling Trust, said the Environment Agency did not seem to have listened to concerns raised last Christmas after it said rivers were at their cleanest since the Industrial Revolution.

Serena Balsdon, spokesman for the Environment Agency, said: "Rivers in England and Wales have improved dramatically, but there's still a lot to do."

Ribbon cut on store's revamp

COLLEAGUES at a Cannock store welcomed customers into their newly extended store with a choice of bucks fizz or orange juice and chocolates.

They were also entertained by the sounds of the Cardinal Griffin swing band playing in the foyer.

Construction work to extend and improve the Sainsbury's store at Voyager Drive, took five months.

With a sales area that now covers 63,482 sq ft sales area, shoppers can experience a new delicatessen counter, salad bar, pizza counter, rotisserie, fresh meat and fish counters as well as a wider range of TU clothing.

A first-floor customer restaurant and photo-processing department are also new additions.

The 400-strong workforce has been joined by a further 80 staff.

Marilyn Atkins cut the ribbon. She is one of the 29 original colleagues who still work at the store since it opened in January 1991.

Store manager Rob Hillman said: "I'd like to thank our customers for their patience throughout the construction works and I hope they'll like the store's new-look as much as we do."

Diamond day for happy couple

Eric and Dorothea pritchard, of Great Wyrley, celebrate their Diamond anniversary; and, inset, on their wedding day in 1951

A GREAT Wyrley couple who have been heavily involved in the Scout and Guide movement have celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary.

Eric and Dorothea Pritchard have marked 60 years together in the same village they have lived in since they married. The couple met after Mrs Pritchard, aged 82, was evacuated from her home in Kent.

After he proposed she moved to Great Wyrley to marry in their local church on September 8, 1951.

Mr Pritchard said: "It was a fine day to get married and I knew I wanted to be with her for the rest of my life."

Mr Pritchard, aged 84, worked with the Scout movement for 30 years, and was a Scout leader for around 20 years for the First Great Wyrley Scout group.

In 1998 a building dedicated to the movement, on Walsall Road in the village, was named the Eric Pritchard Centre to thank him for his efforts.

Mr Pritchard was a pipe work engineer for the gas and oil industry, while Mrs Pritchard was an account clerk. The couple have a daughter Karen, aged 54 and 51-year-old son David.

Jean, who finished tenth overall in the show, has already performed at Birmingham's National Indoor Arena in June on the UK-wide Britain's Got Talent tour. The Civic show will be from 2-4pm.

Partner

The former Cannock school music teacher has performed at the Civic before but as part of a smaller concert.

She said: "When I come to Wolverhampton I love it, it's like coming home. I hope the whole of Wolverhampton comes out to have a look."

Her partner and manager Bob Ware said: "She is a local girl and is delighted to be coming back to a venue she knows so well."

Tickets are £5 and available through Midlands Box Office on 0870 320 7000.

Call for shake-up on coronary aftercare

HEALTH watchdogs are calling for a shake-up of aftercare for heart patients in Staffordshire after the county failed to meet Government targets for rehabilitation programmes.

Councillors on the county's health scrutiny committee want more money spent on the service as figures for heart disease are predicted to rise.

The Government wants 85 per cent of patients who have been discharged from hospital after a heart attack or heart procedure to receive some form of coronary rehabilitation. Presently the figure in mid-Staffordshire is 72 per cent.

The lack of provision is particularly felt in Cannock Chase where premature deaths from cardio-vascular disease are higher than anywhere else in the county.

The rehab scheme is a structured programme of care to help patients slow down, or even reverse, the progression of the problem through changes in lifestyle and the use of medication.

Staffordshire is one of several UK regions to have failed to meet the target.

The committee has now published a report following a review of cardiac rehabilitation provision in Staffordshire.

Following a heart attack patients should be offered the chance to take part in a six to 12 week rehab programme.

Waiting

But the report says waiting times of around three weeks following discharge is affecting uptake.

The report says the economic argument for coronary rehabilitation is convincing. It costs £567 per patient compared to £1,400 for a single day coronary care unit. The cost of emergency re-admission is £2,500 per patient.

It also draws on research which shows that a rehab programme is second only to aspirin and beta-blockers in terms of cost-effectiveness.

Bid to use floodlights until 10pm

A NEW £500,000 sports pitch at a Cannock secondary school was this week set to be given the go-ahead to use floodlights until 10pm.

Residents claim the glare will impact on their homes and affect astronomers and golfers on the nearby municipal course.

Cardinal Griffin Catholic High School in Cardinal Way, says it will lose its main funding if the new pitch is not allowed to operate later.

Cannock Chase Council planning officers were recommending approval at a meeting yesterday (Wednesday).

The council originally wanted to introduce a condition restricting use of the floodlights to 8.30pm.

The Football Foundation, one of the main funders, said its investment should ensure maximum benefit for the community, which the 8.30pm limit does not allow.

Golden oldies in step

A DANCE group for the older generation in Hednesford is celebrating success. Debra Pagett-Bunce, who runs DJ Dance Academy, has helped residents at School Court residential home to get through to the national heats of a competition.

It comes after they topped the group of West Midlands and Staffordshire dance groups. Mrs Pagett-Bunce, who has taught the group for two years and works as a dance instructor full-time, praised the members of the group. "They've got so much energy," she said.

Richard shoots to top in tournament

Richard Morris, from Hednesford, with his gold and silver medals won with the British Muzzle Loading Team

A HEDNESFORD man has returned victorious from a European shooting championships in Finland.

Richard Morris is a member of the Muzzle Loaders Association of Great Britain and won three gold and one silver medal in the Muzzle Loaders Association's International Committee event.

He has been in the Great Britain team for the past 10 years but this was Richard's best ever medal haul.

He returned fron the tournament in Hamina with two goals in individual events and one gold and one silver in the team events.

"Everything just came together at once," said Richard, who shoots in the shotgun class with flintlock and percussion shotguns.

"I've won world and European championship events before but never so many medals in one go. I know I won't go any better – this feels like the peak."

by TIM SPIERS

tim.spiers@expressandstar.co.uk

The sport features guns up to 200 years old and Richard, who trains at Northampton Gun Club and is a member of the Warwickshire Branch of MLAGB, admits it hasn't got a huge following as a spectator event.

"I got into the sport as I was a shotgun shooter who liked the history of the Birmingham gun trade," Richard added.

"Birmingham made more guns in the 1800s than any other place in the world.

"It's a minority sport in Britain, particularly compared to Germany, Italy and France where trap shooters are well-funded, but we do well for ourselves at major championships."

Traffic is held up on the M6 after a man fell from a bridge near Norton Canes

Former PM was right, we don't need so many MPs

I READ with interest your front page story (September 1) of the chap that fell off a bridge near Norton Canes onto the M6 Toll road.

What really caught my eye though was the fact that the road was only closed for 80 minutes. Call me a cynic if you like, but I bet if that had happened on an "ordinary" motorway it would have been closed for half the day while people with clipboards, cameras and tape measures spent a gentle few hours taking down details, etc.

Another interesting snippet was on the letters page, I agree entirely with "Helen of Hednesford" regarding our MP's expenses claims. Surely Cannock isn't that expensive.

I also believe that former Prime Minister Sir John Major was spot on when, just a year or so ago, he said that we nowadays do not need so many MPs. Six hundred and forty odd is far too many.

Just think how much the country could and would save if we only had half that many. Food for thought.

Dog mess left on footpaths by unscrupulous owners

I WOULD like to reply to a letter written in August 25 issue headlined: 'Many cat owners have no responsibility for mess left by pets'.

I currently have nine cats and all of them are litter trained. When they are in the house they always use their tray but when they are outside I have no control over where they poop.

Unlike dog owners I cannot follow my cats and clean up the mess. My cats are sometimes gone for days (and go who knows how far away) and they have to do it somewhere.

They will not come back home to do their business, but this is not because they are not trained, it is just not possible to train outdoor cats to do this. It is because it is natural for them.

Cats will not tend to do their business out in the open, – on lawns as stated. They will more likely poop in the dirt or flowerbeds as they can cover it up.

I know this still isn't nice but if you do have problems the simple solution is that when you see them coming into your garden spray a small amount of water at them, they will soon learn not to come back.

You can also buy cat repellents for your garden. We have had two cats poisoned with anti-freeze which resulted in them both being put down and we feel it was because someone had the similar opinions to garden lovers/cat haters and they took the matter into their own hands. This left my two children, who are both under-six, utterly distraught and unable to understand what had happened to their beloved pets. I personally think dog owners cause more of a nuisance.

Dog mess is not only left on footpaths by unscrupulous owners but poorly trained dogs cause noise pollution. A lot of youths buy aggressive looking dogs as a status symbol. Whereas a poorly trained dog may bite you if you approach it, a poorly domesticated cat will simply run away.

Put Great back into Great Britain

IT is time we put the Great back in Great Britain by stopping all immigration into the country.

Also, by getting all the hard-working men and women that lost their jobs some years back through no fault of their own back to work. Thrown on the scrap heap in their early 50s, what a let-down.

Then, start on the long term unemployed. By this I mean the ones that never had a job in their life and don't want to work. We've got lots of low paid jobs that the emigrants are filling.

Our unemployed should be made to fill the jobs and the Government top up their money. It would still save the taxpayers millions of pounds.

Then we've got the young mothers having babies, pay for the first child, no handout for any more babies. Everyone in life is allowed one mistake.

Anyone with drink and drugs problems get cash handouts to fuel their addiction, the money would be better spent on treating to cure it.

Then we've got the yob culture on our streets. Give the police a free hand – don't tie their hands behind their backs, the police will soon sort it out, not the judges. They tell them to go home and be good lads.

What other country in the world are you rewarded for being idle and penalised for working?

'Colonel' Cameron destroys economy

IT took 42 years for Colonel Gaddafi to destroy his country and drag his people down to the point they revolt against him and fight for a democratic society. Here, we have a democratic society and in just 457 days our very own Colonel Cameron has set about to destroy our economy and the livelihoods of the working classes by selling off everything that was "safe in Tory hands" before the election. They now plan to sell off every hospital one-by-one. After Margaret Thatcher's years, you would have thought we would learn you cannot Trust a Tory.

Good to see mining heritage promoted

IT IS a great credit to our local Museum of Cannock Chase on Valley Road that they continue to promote our area's mining and industrial heritage, exploring links to the past and sharing stories about local history.

The latest event, organised by Members of the Cannock Chase Mining Historical Society, took place last Saturday and Sunday (September 10 and 11) and included film screenings and informal presentations as well as the chance to chat to local history experts about memories of Cannock Chase.

I was especially pleased to see there was a display which commemorated the life of Jack Sunley, who died earlier this year. Jack was a founder member of the Mining Historical Society and was manager of the Valley Training Centre at Hednesford in the 1950s. He also helped to establish the Miners' Lamp and Memorial Wall in Hednesford town centre a feature we can all be proud of and share in Hednesford

Anyone that ever visits the museum will see it also features a permanent exhibition dedicated to the area's mining and industrial heritage.This is the best place for it.

Well done the Museum and Cannock Chase Mining Historical Society !

Students settle in at new academies

Principal David Evans with pupils Isaac Avilres, aged 13, Emma Horton, 17, Liam Sharrard, 15, Amy Griffin, 12 and Amelia Talbot, 14 in their new uniforms at the Staffordshire University Academy, formerly Blake Valley Technology College

THREE new academy schools have begun the new autumn term with flying colours.

The secondary schools, which are now free from county council control, have officially converted to academy status.

They are the newly-formed Erasmus Darwin Academy in Burntwood, Staffordshire University Academy in Hednesford and Fair Oak Academy in Rugeley.

Hednesford's academy, formerly Blake Valley Technology College, has also announced it has just secured a £9.7 million capital investment, reshaping the future of the site over the next three years.

Bernice Astling, principal of the new Erasmus Darwin Academy, which used to be known as Chasetown Specialist Sports College, said the first day of term had gone well and they were looking forward to the forthcoming weeks.

Option

Ms Astling said: "It has been a great start to the new term and everything seems to be running smoothly, which we are pleased with.

"Most of the children are wearing the new uniform, but we did give the older pupils the option not to as we have been aware of parental issues and costs."

At the Staffordshire University Academy in Marston Road, principal David Evans said the funding had been secured to incorporate new and improved buildings and facilities for the students and the community as a whole.

In Rugeley, the Fair Oak Business and Enterprise College has now converted to the Fair Oak Academy.

New head Sonia Taylor said the new term was going well and everyone was very positive.

Last year's black sweatshirts have been swapped for burgundy ones.

Couple's return to scene of triumph

WINNER Kevin Cartwright and his fiancee Nicola Dawson returned to the scene of their windfall for an emotional reunion with hosts Ant and Dec.

Thy were invited back to be in the audience for the final episode on Saturday and met the Geordie presenters and the programme makers after the show.

Kevin said he was in a daze after his win on Sunday, September 4 and said they had played and replayed the programme many times.

"I've asked for a meeting with Ant and Dec and they've said yes, so we're really looking forward to that. It will help us realise it's real – I don't think we'll believe it till then," he said.

Button

Kevin said he had tried to get on Ant and Dec's Push The Button show last year but was not chosen. "I'd have been happy with a £5,000 win but although I was invited down to the studio, I didn't get any further," he said.

"Then when I was told about Red or Black? I thought I'd give it another try, mainly because Nic is such a fan of theirs."

The couple said they are "scared" of spending any of the money because they cannot come to terms with having such a huge amount.

Kevin added: "I've been stopped in the street so many times, often by people I don't know who tell me they are so pleased I won.

"It really means a lot to hear but we need to be on our own."

Game show millionaire in £30 prize

Scratchcard win is just the ticket

Game show winner Kevin Cartwright and fiancee Nicola Dawson

A MILLIONAIRE game show winner spent £10 of his Red or Black? fortune on scratchcards at Asda – and knew his luck was in as he scooped another £30.

Kevin Cartwright, aged 44, landed the windfall on the spin of a wheel on Simon Cowell's new live ITV show, hosted by Ant and Dec.

He and his fiancee Nicola Dawson admit they are still having difficulty taking it in.

The couple, who have been together for 10 years and have three children between them from previous relationships, went window shopping in Wolverhampton and were offered a £66,000 Audi for a weekend test drive.

Kevin said: "It's hard to come to terms with it – this sort of thing doesn't happen to us. The next day I was annoyed at having to pay £16 for a school cardigan for my daughter."

Bungalow

Kevin, a full-time carer for his 38-year-old fiancee, will use the cash he won to take her to America next year for revolutionary treatment for a rare blood disorder.

The couple will first visit Harley Street to see if doctors in Britain can help.

The couple, who live in The Ridings on the Rumer Hill Estate, hope eventually to buy a bungalow but do not plan to move out of Cannock.

"This is where our family is and family is more important than all the money in the world," said Nicola, a former barmaid who, before falling ill four years ago, had qualified as a nail technician.

Red or Black? presenters Ant and Dec join in the family's celebrations

Red or Black's Kevin may go back to work

RED or Black? millionaire Kevin Cartwright has revealed he will go back to work if doctors can treat his sick fiancee for her debilitating illness.

The former lorry driver was forced to give up his job with parcel express firm DHL to look after partner Nicola Dawson full-time, and revealed his bosses refused three times to accept his resignation.

Since landing the fortune on the roulette-based ITV show, he said he hoped he and his partner would be able to carve out new careers and possibly start their own businesses.

Nicola spoke of how difficult it was to watch Kevin carry out the household chores without being able to help.

Her condition, the incurable blood disorder hyperlipidaemia, prevents her from bending and stretching, and often leaves her confined to bed.

The medication and inability to exercise has also seen her weight go up by three and a half stone.

The worst attack 15 months ago left her in the intensive care unit at Stafford Hospital for a week. She said: "The illness is like the worst case of indigestion multiplied by 100. The pain is excruciating."

The couple hope that a revolutionary operation will improve Nicola's mobility so they can return to work.

The pair enjoyed their jobs. Kevin was a coach and lorry driver and Nicola was a cleaner, barmaid and valet.

Qualified

She would like a job in the beauty business having qualified as a nail and beauty technician at Cannock College.

Kevin, 44, said: "We'd both like to get back into a career, maybe working for ourselves."

The pair, who met on a coach trip when Kevin was the driver, have three children from previous relationships – Steven, 23, Nadine, 22, and Jodie, who turns 15 on Saturday (September 17).

The couple have warned Jodie not to expect a big celebration.

Death crash still a mystery – coroner

A CORONER has ruled that the death of a driver who died when his sports car spun and smashed into a tree will remain a mystery.

Paul Woodcroft, aged 30, was driving his Honda S2000 on the A449 Stafford Road, near Coven, with passenger and best friend Tom Bibb when the car crashed. Mr Bibb told an inquest in Cannock he had little to no recollection of the accident or events leading up to it. He added he believed they had been in Tamworth at the cinema and bowling. It is also not known why they were travelling on that road as it was an unusual route for him to take if he was driving Mr Bibb home.

Tuesday's inquest heard Mr Bibb, of Shareshill, had been in a car before with his friend and described his driving as "reasonable". He said there had been a previous occasion when Mr Woodcroft spun his car, nearly hitting a tree as they sped through Cannock Chase.

Gritted

Recording an accidental death verdict, coroner Andrew Haigh said Mr Woodcroft did not have any drugs or alcohol in his system at the time of the January 29 crash and would have died almost instantly from multiple injuries.

Mr Woodcroft, a computer software worker, of Norton East Road, Norton Canes, had owned the sports car for 10 months. He had no convictions for driving offences.

Pc Mark Mould, of the collision investigation unit, said the road had no ice or water on it and had been gritted. Scuff marks were found on the curb and furrows in the verge but there was no evidence as to why the car left the road.

Scaling the heights to aid village playgroup

Mark Wyllie and Lee Hassall, who took on the Three Peaks challenge, with Harrison Wyllie and Archie Hassall

TWO Penkridge dads completed the Three Peaks challenge to raise cash for a village playgroup.

Mark Wyllie, aged 37, of Bridgewater Close and 36-year-old Lee Hassall, of Bitham Close, have so far raised £400 and hope to eventually collect £500 after climbing the highest peaks of England, Scotland and Wales – Scafell Pike, Ben Nevis and Snowdon.

Funds will go to Jubilee Early Years playgroup in Penkridge which their sons attend.

Mr Wyllie said: "I love the outdoors and previously to this challenge have climbed Snowdon with my wife Leisa.

"This was the ultimate challenge though."

Boardwalk opened by One Show host

A BBC presenter has officially unveiled a walkway which will improve a wildlife centre for thousands of visitors.

Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's 20-year-old walkway at the charity's Wolseley Centre base had to be replaced and a campaign was launched to raise badly-needed funds.

Around £60,000 was needed, half of which was awarded by the Staffordshire Aggregates Levy Grant Scheme, with more than £20,000 coming from other donations.

With the walkway now complete Mike Dilger, known for his natural history reports on BBC's The One Show, attended an unveiling ceremony last weekend to officially cut the ribbon.

Mr Dilger, who is originally from Stafford and used to go bird-watching at the Trust's Doxey Marshes reserve, said he was absolutely thrilled to open the new boardwalk.

"It is amazing to think that over the next 30 years an estimated 1.5million people will use it, experiencing the tranquillity of the wetland landscape around them and seeing water-loving wildlife up close," he added.

Diverted

"The boardwalk will last a long time as it is made from tough recycled plastic, and something that brings so many people into close contact with the natural world is definitely a very good thing."

The trust still needs another £10,000 to finish its funding appeal for the boardwalk. If the target is not reached then funds will have to be diverted from the charity's conservation, nature reserves and educational work to make up the difference.

Individuals, businesses and groups who had donated £250 or more to the appeal, called boardwalk benefactors, were also invited to the opening. Their names appear on a commemorative post at the start of boardwalk.

To become a boardwalk benefactor or to donate visit www.staffs-wildlife.org.uk/donate or call 01889 880100.

BBC's One Show star Mike Dilger officially opens Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's new boardwalk with chairman Vince Smith at the charity's Wolseley Centre HQ

Worldwide interest for Land Rover lots

Kevin Nicholas with a very rare 1948 Tickford that is hoped to go for more than £12,000 at auction

A UNIQUE collection of rare Land Rovers has gone on display ahead of an auction that is attracting worldwide interest.

Enthusiast John Craddock, who owns Land Rover parts specialists John Craddock Ltd, saved the collection which had been abandoned in Norway. The vehicles, which include a 1958 snow-tracked Cuthbertson and Land Rovers adapted as fire engines and ambulances, will go under the hammer on Sunday.

Mr Craddock said there had been interest from around the world including the United States, China and Japan. Among those visiting the site in Girton Road, Cannock, where they are on display was Steven Peters from Florida who hopes to take one of them back with him. "This is a piece of history that will never happen again. This collection is massive," he said.

Some of the rarest vehicles are expected to go for tens of thousands of pounds.

Amassed

Viewing of the vehicles is available from 8.30am to 5pm each day this week and on the morning of the auction from 10am. The collection includes various Series Ones and were kept at Sandnes near Stavanger.

The collection was amassed over a decade by a Norwegian, with vehicles coming from all over the world.

The authorities seized the vehicles after they were abandoned. They faced being scrapped until Mr Craddock, who has run his business in North Street, Bridgtown, since 1970, stepped in to buy them and bring them back to the UK.

The auction starts at noon but live bidding will be available on the auction website 48 hours beforehand with each lot displaying in real time the current bid amount when being auctioned on the day.

Online bids can be made through the website www.auctions.johncraddockltd.co.uk

SOROPTIMISTS

The colour purple is party topic

President Eileen Cryer, Ann Rotchell, Carolyn Dyer and Sue Cartlidge clean up after V

SOROPTIMIST Ann Rotchell hosted a 'Purple Party' at her home to raise funds for publicity materials for the club's latest project Purple Teardrop, which is concerned with the issue of trafficking of women and girls.

Everyone there – around 70 people – thoroughly enjoyed themselves, and most managed to wear something purple. As it was a lovely evening, apart from a slight shower, they were able to sit outside before a most enjoyable buffet was served. Money raised totalled £135 which will purchase leaflets to be distributed at several venues to promote the Purple Teardrop campaign.

Meanwhile Soroptimists again joined with local Rotary clubs at Weston Park to collect equipment left behind after the V Festival.

Four club members were able to go along and they collected blow up beds, pairs of Wellington boots, bowls and buckets and many fold up chairs.

All of these items will be used by Pathway – the women's refuge for women victims of domestic violence.

Speaker's subject is Edward's Trust

ETCHING HILL WI

THE August meeting commenced with Margaret Porter welcoming two visitors.

Reminders were given for upcoming events, including a bat walk at Wolseley Bridge Wildlife Centre, where the guide for the evening would be a member of the Staffordshire Bat Group.

Other events to look forward to include a farmhouse supper on September 22 at the home of Margaret Ford, and a behind the scenes visit to the Globe Theatre, London.

The speaker for the evening was Mr Jeremy Walker, who gave an interesting talk about the work of the Edward's Trust.

Located in Edgbaston, Birmingham, the trust was set up in 1989 after Edward Dent died aged seven years.

His parents, Peter and Hilary Dent decided to try to help other families in a similar position. The trust now provides a wide range of support services to bereaved families and children. These services include support and counselling for anyone affected by the death of a child aged 18 or under, to any parent affected by the death of their own child – whatever its age – and for children aged four-to-18-years who are bereaved of a sibling, parent or significant carer.

The Edward's Trust also provides training and consultancy services for school staff, parents or others working with bereaved children and their families.

Further information about the trust can be found on their web site at www.edwardstrust.org.uk.

September's speaker is Christine-Turner Hicks, whose talk is entitled 'A weekend away and nothing to wear'. Members are reminded there will be a bring and buy sales table for produce, plants, seeds, cakes, books and such like.

The Women's Institute offers all kinds of opportunities for all kinds of women. If you would like to try the WI why not go along as a visitor, new faces are always welcome.

Meetings are held on the second Wednesday each month at Etching Hill village hall. Further details can be found at www.wi-etching-hill.org.uk or from the secretary Chris Stinton on 01889 585505.

Meetings start after break with talk on Black Country murders

NORTON CANES HISTORICAL SOCIETY & FAMILY HISTORY GROUP

AFTER the summer break the society commenced its new year with a meeting on Tuesday, September 13 at the library in Burntwood Road

Speaker for the evening was Ian Bott, the popular Black Country author and historian who will be addressing the meeting on the subject of 'Black Country murders'.

A coffee morning is also booked at the library for next Thursday, September 22, from 10am to noon. Also at the informal get-together, memorabilia of Norton Canes and district will be on view with chairman, Roger Knowles on hand to answer any questions.

Ofsted report 'best in school's history'

Pupils and teachers jump for joy at Chancel Primary's outstanding Ofsted results

STAFF and pupils at a Rugeley school returned for a new term to find it had been given a top report from Ofsted inspectors.

The inspection was carried out at Chancel Primary School in Wolseley Road on July 12 and 13.

Headteacher Jane Davies said the inspectors' report graded the school good overall with many outstanding features.

"It represents the best Ofsted report in the school's history and was one of the most positive reports in the Rugeley area," she said.

The inspectors were particularly impressed by the school's strong family atmosphere which was said to make pupils feel safe and happy to learn.

The early years foundation stage was rated outstanding.

The school was also commended for giving an outstanding start to pupils' education in the foundation stage with a high priority given to personal, social and emotional development.

Support

The inspectors said that those positive attitudes continued through the school with progress judged to be good and year six attainment in English and mathematics above average.

Mrs Davies said the school was also praised for the way it looked after pupils and was classed as outstanding for care, guidance and support. Pupils told inspectors there was no bullying and teachers always listened to and dealt with problems quickly and fairly.

Lead inspector Lois Furness said teachers worked hard to provide well planned and interesting lessons and the school had a "lively and motivating" curriculum.

Chairman of governors Denis Birdsall said: "We are all very proud of the children of Chancel Primary School and are extremely pleased with this inspection report.

"Our head teacher and the whole school team can be equally proud and pleased as I am certain are all of our parents.

"We thank everyone for this significant achievement," he added.

Walkies to aid charity

STAFF at a Cannock firm raised almost £700 by taking part in a sponsored dog walk.

More than 80 staff at fork-lift truck distributor Briggs Equipment walked more than 30 dogs in all from the company's office in Orbital Way to Kingsway Ponds and back again in aid of Dogs for the Disabled.

The day of fundraising activities included competitions for the smallest dog, waggiest tail and 'the dog that the judge would like to take home'.

In addition, prizes were donated by staff for a tombola and a bring-and-buy sale.

Dogs for the Disabled is the firm's chosen charity for 2011 and parent company Sammons Enterprises has pledged to match-fund.

School day changes lead to traffic chaos

A CHANGE in times at a Cheslyn Hay school has led to traffic chaos in the village.

The start and end of the school day at Cheslyn Hay Sport and Community High School in Saredon Road has been brought forward by 40 minutes.

More than 1,000 pupils at the secondary school now finish at 3.10pm – just 10 minutes before neighbouring Cheslyn Hay Primary School shuts.

Villagers say it is causing congestion in the road and the surrounding area from parents parking to pick up pupils.

Cheslyn Hay parish council is now trying to organise a meeting between Staffordshire County Council, the schools and local police officers to try to sort out the situation. High school head John Martin said the governors took the decision in December 2010 to start and finish the school day earlier from September.

It followed consultation with parents, staff, the local authority and the local primary schools.

A joint letter was sent to parents of the two schools from the two chairmen of governors explaining the changes and asking parents to review their children's travel arrangements in time for the new academic year.

Congestion

Mr Martin said there had been problems with parking on Saredon Road at the end of the primary school day for some years.

"It appears that this week there have been some extra congestion in the village of Cheslyn Hay. It is hoped that as people get used to the new timings and adjust their travel arrangements, things will settle down," he said.

Mr Martin said his school would be involved in the parish council meeting as the parking on Saredon Road has been a problem for some time.

"I urge the parents of the older children who live locally not to bring them to school by car but encourage them to walk to school," he added.

Police have been called out to deal with the congestion problems since the secondary school returned for the autumn term.

Inspector Pat Shannaghan, commander of South Staffordshire local policing team, said neighbourhood police offices had been at Saredon Road over recent days.

Abandoned kittens look for new home

Veterinary nurse Jenni Howell with the abandoned cats

A FAMILY of black kittens were found, sodden and starving, under a bush in Cannock.

A Good Samaritan took the five cats to the Vets 4 Pets veterinary practice on Old Hednesford Road about half a mile away from where they were discovered.

Staff are now hoping cat lovers will come forward and give the kittens, who are about three to four weeks old, a home.

All are sooty black in colour except for one which has a white bib. Veterinary nurse Jenni Howell said the abandoned pets were in a sorry condition.

Anyone interested should call 01543 424100.

Sponsorship plea on transport show

ORGANISERS of an annual transport show at Chasewater Country Park are seeking more sponsorship for next year's event. The 2012 Chasewater Transport Show has been set for April 12.

Organiser Helen Borton said they were seeking support to pay for the toilet hire which is £185, the generator hire of £100 and the hire of the park at £175.

"We are offering any interested companies a complete advertising package on our promotional flyers, on our website and on posters," she said.

Helen added the show's sole purpose was to raise money for charities.

"We do not charge entrance fees or for parking, we basically give the public a free day out. But without funds to pay for toilet hire and the hire of the park, the show just can't happen."

Any interested businesses can call Helen on 01543 500926. For show details visit www.chasewatertransportshow.com

The volunteer working party, including Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley, that helped to clear up the 'Bloody Steps'

Concerns raised over problems at site

MP backing 'Bloody' Steps' clean-up call

CANNOCK Chase MP Aidan Burley is backing calls to help clean up an in-famous area on the Trent and Mersey Canal in Rugeley.

The Conservative MP said he was putting his weight behind the move to clean up the so-called 'Bloody Steps'.

Mr Burley said he had been contacted by a number of constituents about the ongoing problems and he joined around 30 volunteers from across the county to help in the clean-up process last weekend.

He said: "We are very lucky to have such a wonderful canal network across the West Midlands and Staffordshire.

"It is important we do all we can to ensure it remains a safe and clean environment to visit. A number of constituents had brought to my attention the ongoing problems with vandalism and anti-social behaviour at the 'Bloody Steps' in Rugeley.

"I hope one day the 'Bloody Steps' area will be a nice picnic area for walkers and canal users."

Railings

The clean up sessions had been organised by Inland Waterway Association representative Margaret Beards-more.

The IWA helps campaign for the use, maintenance and restoration of Britain's Inland waterways.

Volunteers are hoping for a slice of funding from the Heritage lottery to help with projects. Canal users and volunteers spent time at the weekend cleaning up and clearing soil and bracken and vegetation from around the 'Bloody Steps' as well as painting railings and trimming trees.

Other volunteers cut back scrub and removed graffiti at the site while more improvement work was done along the canal towpath in Rugeley town.

The work forms part of an ongoing scheme to regenerate the canal area in the town.

The 'Bloody Steps' get their name from the story of Christina Collins, who was raped and murdered in 1839.

Her killer was said to have carried her up the steps, and local legend has it that the steps have since oozed blood while her ghost appeared at the scene.

Doctor in the saddle for trek across India

Dr Seshagiri Thirukkarugavoor, aged 42 from Rugeley who is about to do a charity bike ride across India

A RUGELEY doctor is getting on his bike to raise funds for charity.

Dr Thirukkarugavoor Seshagiri, aged 42, works at Walsall's Manor Hospital and will set off on October 1 to cycle 2,200 miles from the north of India to the south.

Money raised will help sponsor cataract operations for people in rural parts of the country. The operations are organised by Sanjeevini Trust, a charity started by Dr Seshagiri.

He said: "In three years we have adopted five villages and we carry out screening programmes to detect high blood pressure, diabetes and high cholesterol. These conditions are risk factors for various chronic diseases."

The tests, treatment and specialist referrals are all free for the villagers.

The bike ride starts in the Kashmir in the north and ends in Kanyakumari on the south coast.

"I hope to cover the distance in 35 days," he added.

To sponsor Dr Seshagiri visit www.sanjeevinitrust.com or send an e-mail to tv.seshagiri@yahoo.co.uk

Here come the girls!

'Gurl' just wants to have fun – Californian pop star Katy Perry brings her sunshine sound to perk up an English autumn at Birmingham NIA on October 15

THREE of the pop world's biggest female stars will be coming to the West Midlands this autumn.

First up, fresh from her star turn at the summer's V Festival, is Barbados-born R&B diva Rihanna, who will not be needing her Umbrella when she plays Birmingham LG Arena on Saturday, October 15. And the singer, who also had massive hits with Only Girl (In The World) and Disturbia, will be returning again and again to the city, with another concert at the LG on November 18 and then at the National Indoor Arena (NIA) on November 29. Special guest on her Loud Tour will be Ibiza DJ and dance hit-maker Calvin Harris.

That California 'Gurl' Katy Perry will ensure a Firework show to remember at Birmingham NIA on Wednesday, October 26, as part of the second leg of her sold out California Dreams Tour. Expect lots of pink cotton candy. Her support will be New York-based Danish singer-songwriter Oh Land.

Glee

Perhaps the biggest of the three concerts, if only because at one time it seemed so unlikely, is the return to the live arena of pop superstar Britney Spears.

Expect all 21 of her smash hits and a couple of surprises as the blonde bombshell gets back In The Zone at the LG Arena on Sunday, October 30, in one of only three UK shows as part of her world tour to mark the release of seventh album Femme Fatale. It's her first since 2008's platinum set The Circus.

One of a handful of artists who inspired her own Glee episode, Britney promises a lavish extravaganza for the fans and, as an extra treat the comeback queen will be bringing along heart-throb Joe Jonas as her support act.

For further information see the www.necgroup.co.uk/whatson website.

Britney's back and playing the LG on October 30. Below, Rihanna visits Birmingham three times in October and November

foster care

Could you offer him a brighter future?

Flying Colours has great ambition for all of the children that they foster and they require Foster carers who can hold on to this vision in the face of a difficult, but perhaps the most rewarding task they will ever undertake. If you think you have space in your life to help a traumatised child, Flying Colours would really like to hear from you. We are looking for people who:

- Can offer a damaged child an experience of family life which values them as individuals
- Can accept that their behaviour is as a result of their traumatic beginning in life
- Are determined to show them a better life and work as part of a team

If you think that you have the determination to provide a child with the experiences that we all take for granted, have a spare bedroom and are prepared to embark on a new full time career as foster carer with Flying Colours we are prepared to offer you:

- Full training in your task
- Comprehensive support, 24hrs a day
- A professional fee, typically £380-£420 per week for each child you care for

Flying Colours are keen to recruit carers throughout Shropshire, Staffordshire and the West Midlands which reflects the diverse backgrounds of the children referred to us and we welcome applications from all individuals or couples irrespective of disability or ethnic, cultural, sexual or religious backgrounds.

Saxophonist Julian Smith

Since then he had been touring all over the country and recorded with classical favourites Andrew Lloyd Webber and Paul Potts.

Smith also got to play a special duet with his idol Kenny G at the Royal Albert Hall, perform for Prince Charles at Clarence House and release a new studio album – Chilled 2 the Sax – under stage name Joolz Gianni.

Actor puts stamp on panto role

TV star Graham Cole will be getting into a mean mood for his latest role – as Ebenezer Scrooge.

Cole, who starred as Pc Tony Stamp in The Bill, takes on the lead role in A Christm,as Carol, this year's Christmas production at the Lichfield Garrick theatre.

The actor, who spent 25 years as Pc Stamp, visited Lichfield to meet the rest of the cast.

He said it was his first visit to the city, and was looking forward to getting stuck into the role.

"This is my first time in Lichfield and when I walked to the theatre it really was fantastic.

"When I took on the role, my wife Cherry said she knew there would be little in the way of rehearsals to play Scrooge and I already have the grumpy credentials for the part."

Adrian Jackson, Lichfield Garrick's artistic and executive director said there would be some special surprises organised for the audience.

The show runs from December 1 until January 2 next year. Tickets are already on sale and selling fast. To book, call Lichfield Garrick Box Office on 01543 412121 or visit www.lichfieldgarrick.com

To mark the production, the theatre has produced A Christmas Carol model theatre and script. It features an edited version of the script and a model of the set, complete will all the characters from the festive play. Costing £6.50 each, the books will be available to buy online from mid September and at the Garrick, throughout its run.

Meerting up Erasmus Darwin House are the cast of A Christmas Carol, from left Graham Cole, Lisa-Marie Holmes and Lucy-Jane Quinlan

Youngsters given the chance to find Fame

A LICHFIELD youth theatre group is looking for new talent to perform in its next musical.

Fame – The Musical is to be staged by Lichfield Garrick Youth Theatre next April.

It follows sell out productions of Oliver!, Footloose, Rent and Les Miserables.

The production team behind the youth theatre's award nominated Footloose will be at the helm and the show will involve a cast of 50 local young people.

Fame – The Musical was previously performed by the group nearly five years ago.

Chairman Oliver Rowe said: "It never ceases to amaze me of the talent we find in the local areas."

The first open meeting took place last Sunday, September 11 at Holy Cross Hall, in Chapel Lane, Lichfield. Anyone interested, aged 12 to 19, can still turn up for rehearsals at the same place this Sunday (18) from 2-5pm.

BIG BROTHER
Channel 5, 9pm

Some people were a bit sceptical when it was announced that Big Brother was coming back less than a year after we thought Channel 4 had killed it off for good. Wouldn't Channel 5 have been better off leaving it for a couple of years and giving us time to get nostalgic about those summers spent watching a group of attention-seeking strangers trying to share a house before they resurrected the format? However, we needn't have worried – even without Davina McCall bellowing over the eviction night crowds, Big Brother is still as strangely addictive as ever. Here, Marcus Bentley, the unmistakable voice of BB, narrates the highlights from the past day.

It's hands-off motoring

TO THE OTHER drivers on the A9 motorway between Munich and Nuremberg, the silver BMW 5-Series is as good as invisible, sharing the road space with the usual throng of trucks, buses, motorbikes and other drivers in similar German products.

A closer look would reveal that the driver isn't holding the steering wheel, and if they could look into the footwell, they would see that his feet aren't touching the pedals either.

This is an autonomous 5-Series, the product of BMW's Highly Automated Driving project and its manager, Dr Nico Kampchen, is behind the wheel – despite having virtually no input into the driving process.

The test vehicle has completed more than 3,000 miles of development driving, and once on the motorway, where it is designed to operate, all the driver needs to do is push a button.

"This is an entirely new situation and experience for the driver – it is a strange feeling handing over complete control of the car to an autonomous system, " Kampchen says.

"But after a few minutes of experiencing the smooth, sovereign and safe driving style, drivers and passengers begin to relax somewhat and trust the independent system. Nevertheless, the driver is still responsible for the situation at all times and must constantly keep an eye on traffic and the surroundings.

Combining technology such as Emergency Stop Assistant and Adaptive Cruise Control, some of which is available on production cars, the 5-Series constantly monitors its surroundings and can react and deal with any potential situation.

The team said dealing with traffic merging onto the motorway was the biggest challenge, but the test car can slow to allow this or even change lanes. Overtaking, emergency stops, changing road surface and weather conditions – all of this is dealt with automatically.

Hurdle

While this might seem like the stuff of fantasy, the biggest hurdle to overcome is the minds of drivers.

Handing over complete control to computer software is a big step – even though we regularly climb aboard aeroplanes that do just that – and it's easy to think that this will result in a general disengagement from the process of driving that isn't necessarily seen as progress.

Yet the truth is that computers don't make errors, only humans do, and a world in which a computer can respond in split seconds to a situation you may not even see developing can only be a good thing for every road user.

Formula One king Vettel designs his own vehicle

THE perfect high-performance Infiniti Crossover – designed by, and built for, Formula One World Champion Sebastian Vettel – was making its debut in concept form at the 64th International Motor Show in Frankfurt.

The Red Bull Racing driver and Infiniti Global Brand Ambassador was unveiling "his" car at the show.

The first-ever Vettel-badged road car, the FX Sebastian Vettel version is the lightest, fastest and most aerodynamic FX yet.

It reflects the world champion's desire for a speedy 300km/h Crossover that he can drive on his home country's derestricted Autobahn.

Sporting

Based on the already fast and sporting V8-powered FX50S Premium, the FX Sebastian Vettel version features changes to engine, suspension and body.

There are also key aerodynamic enhancements implemented with input from Red Bull Racing.

The one-off model also gains an interior personalised to Vettel's taste, taking the brand hallmarks of exclusiveness and individuality to new levels.

You want to buy a second-hand car.

Just something that's fuel-efficient. But it needs a bit of power – your neighbourhood's quite hilly and your groceries can be so heavy. And it's nice to have an engine that roars.

New Defender is cleanest in 60 years

A six-speed gearbox helps control the vehicle in all directions

A comfortable way to tackle all terrains

THERE will be an all-new Land Rover Defender by 2015 but in the meantime the 2012 Land Rover Defender will be the cleanest ever produced, thanks to its engine. A new EU5 2.2-litre diesel engine replaces the EU4 2.4-litre diesel for 2011, bringing greater levels of performance and refinement to the 2012 model.

The smaller engine delivers the same power, torque and economy as its predecessor. In EU5 markets, the engine comes with a diesel particulate filter (DPF) to ensure the lowest possible levels of regulated emissions.

The Defender dates back to 1948 and since then Land Rovers have earned a reputation as the most rugged and versatile off-road vehicles in the world. Since the current model's introduction in 2007, an average of 25,000 Defenders have sold worldwide every year. Customers in over 100 countries, including armed forces and non-government organisations believe the Defender's off-road ability, durability and towing capability are head and shoulders above the competition. Such unique attributes explain why this legendary vehicle commands exceptionally high standards of customer loyalty.

"The substantial improvements to the Defender in 2007 transformed its on-road refinement and comfort whilst extending its legendary capability off-road for which Defender is synonymous," said John Edwards, Land Rover global brand director.

"With the introduction of the new 2.2-litre diesel engine and two option packs, the Defender for 2012 now offers greater customer choice than ever before."

The new EU5 2.2-litre diesel engine replaces the EU4 2.4-litre diesel which it matches for power, torque and fuel consumption. A full-acoustic engine cover replaces the previous splash cover, reducing radiated engine noise and improving driving refinement. Meeting EU5 regulations, the engine delivers lower levels of the regulated emissions, NOx, CO and HC thanks to an improved combustion system and sophisticated engine management system.

Power

Despite the smaller capacity and reduced emissions, the new engine produces the same power – 122PS@3,500rpm and torque, 360Nm@2,000rpm, as the outgoing 2.4-litre engine.

Performance remains similar too, though the top speed has been raised to 90mph from 82mph for the previous version. CO2 emissions on the combined cycle are consistent at 266g/km for the 90 and 295g/km for the 110 and 130.

The GFT MT 82 six-speed gearbox has been retained for 2012 with its excellent ratio spread, high top gear for cruising and enhanced low-speed crawl capability.

The lower first gear makes towing on-road and off-road much easier. The low-down engine torque also helps in-gear acceleration and the tall sixth gear ensures excellent real-world cruising, refinement and fuel economy. Ground gears in both the gearbox and transfer box help contribute to the refinement of the transmission.

Two new option packs are: the Comfort Pack which includes air conditioning, CD Player with auxiliary input, electric windows and remote central locking for £1650; or the Off-Road Pack with ABS, heavy duty rim and MTR tyres, tow ball and under-ride protection bar for £1500.

In response to customer feedback, a plain black Pick Up hood will now be available as an option and a plain beige hood will be introduced for the 110 Double Cab Pick Up. Both options are in addition to existing styles. A further enhancement for 2012 includes the addition of tinted glass on all models.

The Defender's fascia is based on a single, large moulding supported on a robust steel rail to help eliminate squeaks and rattles. The instruments provide clear, concise information to the driver, and details such as all-LED instrument illumination ensure reliability. Versatile shelves are conveniently located for the driver and passenger and two console options are available: a practical open-tray design that keeps contents to hand and a large, lidded design that provides a 14 litres of stowage.

Ventilation

A powerful heating and ventilation system is designed to cope with the most extreme climates and features aluminium plate and fin heat exchangers to deliver impressive performance.

Tall front seats are designed to improve maximum back support and head restraint ergonomics in the most demanding driving conditions and there are robust, supportive second row seats too.

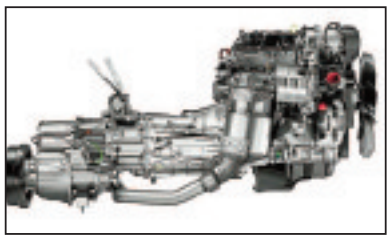
The 110 Station Wagon and 130 Crew Cab models can comfortably accommodate three occupants on an asymmetrically-split second row seat. A spring-assisted fold mechanism helps when folding the seats for carrying large or awkward loads.

In the Defender 90 Station Wagon second row occupants benefit from a pair of individual, full-size, forward-facing rear seats. Providing excellent comfort levels, these seats are also available as a third row option on the 110 Station Wagon. Reached through the rear door or by folding the second row seats, they can be easily folded and stowed sideways in the loadspace.

Seat trims include durable all-vinyl and cloth specifications; a half-leather option is also included in the XS specification available on Station Wagon and 110 Double Cab Pick-Up derivatives to add a touch of luxury to the cabin. Three-point safety belts are specified for all seating positions.

Defender's unique vehicle architecture has been retained for 2012. The chassis frame is available in three different wheelbases. A total of 14 separate body styles are produced on the mainstream production line.

The 2012 Defender is available from £20,995 on the road and will be on sale in the UK from November 2011.



The engine includes a particulate filter

Land Rover now the UK's favourite four-wheel drive

Land Rover won more than half of the vote in a national poll

WHO MAKES the best 4x4s? That'll be Land Rover, which blitzed its rivals in a poll of 40,000 people to find the UK's favourite 4x4 maker.

Not for the first time, Land Rover has blown its off-roader rivals into the weeds. The famous British marque claimed an astonishing 54 per cent of the vote in a MSN Cars poll.

Just under 40,000 people provided their answer to the question: "Which firm makes the best '4x4' type cars?" when it was posed on the MSN Cars website last month.

Respondents were invited to choose their favourite from a list of 12 leading 4x4 manufacturers which included Jeep, Mitsubishi and Subaru as well as premium marques such as BMW, Mercedes-Benz and Porsche.

Second-placed Toyota polled nine per cent of the vote, so Land Rover's 54 per cent was the definition of an emphatic victory. Audi arrived in third place with eight per cent.

The MSN Cars poll clearly shows the UK public hold a special place in their hearts for Land Rover and its products. The first vehicle to carry the famous name appeared in 1948 and, although the company is now owned by TATA Motors, its headquarters are still based in Gaydon, Warwickshire.

The current Land Rover range includes household names such as the Freelander, Discovery and Defender models, along with the premium Range Rover and Range Rover Sport line-ups.

"We are thrilled that MSN users have voted Land Rover their favourite 4x4 brand," said Colin Green, managing director of Land Rover UK.

"We know that Land Rover has some of the best brand loyalty figures in the industry and this poll is testament to that.

Authentic

"Taking over half the votes is a great achievement and goes to prove that Land Rover really does make the world's most authentic 4x4s. Thank you to everyone who voted for us!"

"As one of Britain's most cherished car companies, it's no surprise to see Land Rover top our poll as the maker of the best 4x4 vehicles," said Tom Evans, editor of MSN Cars.

"Its profile is about to get much higher with the arrival on our roads of a handsome, compact and affordable model in the shape of the Range Rover Evoque, which looks set to be a great success."

Cap speed in school areas, says Peugeot

PEUGEOT is looking to cap speed as the school summer holidays come to an end.

The company is reminding motorists that by using a speed-limiter they can drive safely, enjoy better fuel economy and protect their licence.

At this time of year drivers should be extra vigilant, especially around schools at peak hours.

Peugeot is calling on its customers, or drivers of any vehicle equipped with speed limiters, to set them to 20mph when driving near schools or entering residential areas. Speed limiters can be fitted to most cars.

The system, equipped as standard to most Peugeot models, electronically prevents drivers from exceeding the speeds they set on the device.

Morgan Lecoupeur, director of marketing for Peugeot UK, said: "Excessive speed is widely regarded as the number one contributor of road accidents, and keeping a speed below 20mph makes total sense when driving in residential areas or near schools.

"However, maintaining 20 mph or lower in a modern car is taxing in itself, but in truth it needn't have to be due to speed limiters fitted to most new models.

"Once a desired speed is set, our system prevents the driver from exceeding that velocity."

Peugeot has urged motorists to be safety conscious as the bell rings for the new school term

William Haycox and father David celebrate their doubles win

Father and son net doubles win

TENNIS

A FATHER and son team triumphed in the first ever Cannock Tennis Club Open doubles tournament staged last weekend.

David Haycox and his son William were the aces on the day. They beat Andy Richardson and Ian Peasley in a hard fought final played in difficult weather conditions on Sunday (September 11).

Seven couples turned up for the tournament on the day and competed in a round robin format with each team playing each other over eight games. The total number of games each couple won was then totalled up with the top two scorers making the final.

David and William, who both play for Brewood Tennis Club, won the group with 40 points while Andy and Ian, who both play for Cannock, came second with 35.

In a competitive final the father and son duo showed dogged persistence to wear their opponents down and deservedly win 6-3.

A recruitment drive for Cannock's two men's teams who play in the Wilson Staffordshire Inter- Club Tennis League is currently taking place and the event was an opportunity for non-members to come along and see what the club has to offer.

Andy, one half of the beaten finalists, is spokesman for the club.

He said: "It was a difficult day as the players were having to deal with very windy conditions but I think everyone enjoyed a really competitive day of tennis.

"David and his son William were deserving winners on the day so really well done to them."

The club plays on three astro courts based at the Cannock Cricket and Hockey Club, in Church Lane, Hatherton.

The club's doubles A team play in Division 2 South while the B team play in Division 6 South.

The club has the most competitive joining fees around with adult membership costing just £70 for the year.

Club night is a Monday evening and members regularly arrange to play either doubles or singles social games during the week and at a weekend.

For more information contact Andy on 07866 212026. Also visit www.cannocktennis.co.uk

Pot of goals at Rainbow's end

BURNTWOOD DRAGONS U-9S 2 BEACON COLTS 1

In their first game of 'competitive' football the Dragons had to contend with not only a very strong wind but a strong Beacon side.

After a goalless first half the visitors took the lead, but Dragons rallied and pulled level through Alex Tisdell before Jack Taylor passed for Tommy Dace to slot home the winner.

PRD UNITED 1 BURNTWOOD DRAGONS U-12S 2

A positive start to the new season for Burntwood. In fairly blustery conditions Dragons had the edge in the first half but fell behind early into the second.

Burntwood did not give up and continued to play some very positive football with two quick goals from Liam Latham and Man of the Match Matty Cartwright handing Dragons all the points.

HOLLY LANE 3 CHASETOWN U-12S 2

A great free kick from Zak Brown, and a thunderous strike from Nathan Schanno wasn't enough for the Scholars.

The Supporters' Man of the Match was shared by Andy Jeffreys and Tom Pearce with Schanno earning the manager's award.

Players are required to strengthen the current Chasetown under-17s team, specifically at centre half, centre midfield and centre forward. Call Andy on 07876 596474 or email andycoombes@hotmail.com.

LEA HALL U-13S CHASETOWN SCHOLARS 6

Scholars started the new campaign with a hard fought victory in difficult playing conditions.

With the wind in their favour, Scholars raced into a 4-0 lead thanks to Reece Darby, Daniel Banks and a brace from Jack Rainbow, but some indifferent defending allowed the hosts back into it.

Man of the Match Rainbow completed his hat-trick just before half-time. In the second half, Lea Hall briefly rallied with a third goal, before Rainbow slotted his fourth of the game to wrap it up.

LEA HALL U-14S 3 ALDRIDGE FC 2

FOUR OAKS U-11S 4 BRERETON TOWN 2

Promoted Brereton began their 11-a-side campaign with a trip to Four Oaks.

CHASETOWN

Progress for young guns

CHASETOWN V NEWCASTLE TOWN, FA YOUTH CUP PRELIMINARY ROUND

CHASETOWN'S young guns overcame last season's main League rivals Newcastle Town in the FA Youth Cup Preliminary Round on a wet Wednesday night.

The Scholars looked the stronger side by some margin in the early part of the tie but it remained goalless at half-time.

Jed Davies broke through to rifle the Scholars into a second half lead.

Out of nowhere the visitors equalised on 78 minutes when Jordan Cole fired across Dominic Hill from a tight angle.

Straight from the kick-off, Connor Leek fired a loose ball home to put the Scholars back in the lead.

Four minutes later it was three for the home side when a cross from Lunn on the right found Samson Alalade in position to calmly tap home.

BOLDMERE ST MICHAELS 2 CHASETOWN RESERVES 5

Surprisingly, this was only the reserves' second competitive game of 2011/12. Yet Andy Penny's well oiled machine didn't show any signs of rust as they steam rollered into round two of the Challenge Trophy.

Danny Smith broke the deadlock, chipping James Beeson from 25 yards and the Scholars doubled their lead on 28 minutes with Karl Edwards scrambling home.

Boldmere were awarded a 39th minute penalty which Aaron Smith converted to put the Mikes back into the tie.

Within five minutes of the re-start Chasetown restored their two goal advantage with a 20-yarder from Theo Robinson. and on 70 minutes it was 4-1 courtesy of a David Bridgewater volley.

Capaldi gave Boldmere an 82nd minute lifeline but with a minute remaining, Scholars' sub Max Black made it five.

CHASETOWN LADIES 0 WYRLEY 2

A costly match for Chasetown against old adversaries. First the positives, another good performance from Amy Farmer and an impressive display by Bethan Ridding.

However, this was tempered by a foot injury to Jodie Kinsey and a significant injury to Jade Arber who was taken to hospital with a badly gashed knee.

Wyrley dominated the whole of the first half and took the lead on 35 minutes.

In the second half, in time honoured fashion Chasetown played well and Wyrley scored.

SHENSTONE LADIES

Shenstone hang on in frantic finish

SHENSTONE LADIES 2 WALSALL RESERVES 1

SHENSTONE started the brighter of the two sides and Sophie Wilding gave them the lead.

Ten minutes later Natalie Lowe chipped the keeper from out by the corner flag for the second.

After a spell of second half pressure Carly Mills hit a bullet shot up over the Shenstone keeper from 20 yards out,this set up a frantic finish.

Players from Penkridge 1st XI celebrate their Staffs Club championship, following the success of its second and third teams

Penkridge claim hat-trick of titles

CRICKET

PENKRIDGE (253-5) DREW WITH HAWKINS (164-6)

PENKRIDGE 1st XI crowned a fantastic 2011 campaign by clinching the Division 1 Staffs Clubs Championship title on Saturday.

A rain-affected winning draw against Hawkins was enough to triumph over second placed Milford, who could only manage a winning draw against Aldridge.

Both Penkridge and Milford registered in excess of 400 points which is a fabulous achievement, with Penkridge finally edging out their rivals by just seven points.

Skipper Paul Szewczyk was delighted with his team's performance throughout the season. "We set ourselves high standards this year and have put in some real graft both on the pitch and at nets, so the boys thoroughly deserve to win this league," he said.

"We have had the aim of returning to the Birmingham League every year since our relegation back in 2006, but have never quite put it together on the pitch.

"We're well chuffed to have finally achieved this, but the fact we have won all three leagues we play in speaks volumes about the strength of the club at the moment – there's a real buzz about the place."

Szewczyk (44) was one of the chief contributors to Penkridge's 253-5 on Saturday, with Saleem Malik (69), Laeq Chishti (44 not out) and Tom Chew (33) the other scorers of note.

Hawkins made steady progress without threatening to overhaul the Penkridge score thanks to the efforts of Syed Tahir (39) and Lee Evans (39 not out), and they closed their curtailed innings on 164-6. The 1st XI made it a league and cup double on Sunday as they triumphed over Milford Hall in the 20/20 finals at Aldridge. Set 160 to win, Penkridge knocked off the runs in the 18th over, to set up another evening of celebrating.

PENKRIDGE 2ND XI (284-6) DREW WITH HAWKINS (241- 4)

The 2nd XI finished with a winning draw against Hawkins to round off the successful defence of the Division 1A title.

Penkridge cruised to 284-6 from their 50 overs with Richard James (90 not out) and leading run maker Kev Baker (60 not out) to the fore. An unbeaten century from Hasham Raoof and a solid 74 from Shaun Brazier put paid to the likelihood of a Penkridge victory as Hawkins closed on 241-4 from a rain reduced 48 overs.

PENKRIDGE 3RD XI (75-2) BEAT LICHFIELD (74) BY EIGHT WICKETS

The 3rd XI also completed a league and cup double as they came out on top of Pelsall in their 20/20 final on Sunday, and dominated their league fixture against Lichfield on Saturday.

Lichfield batted first and were skittled for just 74 with Nadeem Tariq (5-10) and Usman Butt (4-37) running amok.

Steve Jones (19 not out) and Adam Ball (26 not out) ensured there were no dramas as Penkridge eased home losing just two wickets in the 17th over.

Next up Jersey for Rugeley driver Payton

RALLYING

RUGELEY driver Martin Payton finished a creditable third overall and won his class at his latest race last weekend.

Driving his usual Gotcha/Ecojet Mitsubishi Evo-6 he was in fine form at the MPM Rally following his last class win in June at the Rally of the Midlands.

Parton was actually leading the rally after four stages before a puncture cost him two minutes and dropped him down to fifth overall. However he fought back to claim third overall and another class win.

The team now heads to the Channel Islands for the Jersey Rally in October before Rally GB's round of the World Rally Championship in November.

Seventh heaven as fourths put in solid team performance

HOCKEY ROUND-UP

CANNOCK 3RD XI 5 KINGSWINFORD 1ST XI 1

CANNOCK thirds team began their new season with a home friendly against Kingswinford firsts team and the mix and match team came away with a 5-1 victory.

Goals from George Myatt, Dan Bosi and Andy Hodgetts as well as a brace from Aaron Wilkes saw Cannock start their season on good form. However, match fitness is still some distance away.

CANNOCK 4TH XI 7 KINGSWINFORD 2ND XI 0

The first of the Cannock 4ths pre-season friendlies saw a large and mixed squad take on Kingswinford 2nds. Despite this squad being thrown together, they gelled very well and put in a very solid team performance.

The midfield gave the opposition little time to settle and soon started to create scoring opportunities. This pressure led to the first two short corners, the second of which was fiercely driven against the backboard by Gary Stacey to open Cannock 's account. Josh Ward doubled the tally.

For Cannock 's third Chris Darnley collected the ball on the halfway line, drifted passed four players before flicking the ball passed the keeper towards the far post. In the meantime the ever alert Dan Hoare had sprinted from right back to arrive at the post in time to deflect the ball home for the goal. After the break Darnley scored his first with a deflection from a scrambled short corner. His second goal was a slow motion chip that ballooned over the keeper's head to dribble into the goal – just. Karl Bayliss amazed everyone with a perfectly executed reverse strike which left the Kingswinford goalkeeper wrong footed for Cannock's sixth. The final goal was scored by Louie Morris who found space for a shot as he moved from top D to the right and struck a firm ball into the side boards.

Cannock kept their shape and discipline, and ran out comfortable winners in this early encounter.

CANNOCK BADGERS 3 TELFORD BADGERS 2

The new season saw Cannock Badgers start the campaign with a pre season friendly against Telford at St George's.

Although this was Cannock's first game it was Telford's third outing and this was evident from the early exchanges.

Fielding a new line-up Cannock took some time to settle with very few chances for either side. Midway through the first half a surging run by Callum Swinnerton-Ions resulted in confusion in the Telford goal and he was able to pop in the resultant loose ball.

Another quick Cannock break saw Alex Kingston one-on-one with the Telford keeper but the ball was cleared. More good work through the middle saw a snap shot from Danny Swinnerton-Ions go just wide of the post with Cannock finishing the first half on top.

Cannock started the second half slowly but finally got going with a run from the half way line by Jordan Joiner with his shot going just wide. Another good run by Kingston into the Telford D was not cut out but with Alex and Jordan Joiner waiting to pounce the ball trickled in.

Telford reacted to going two down, and a short corner saw James Bandurak make two quick saves in succession to keep them out.

Further Telford pressure saw a shot deflected into his own goal by a Cannock player. Another good save from Bandurak kept Telford from drawing level. However, in their next attack Telford finally found a way through and equalised.

Both teams went for the win with Angus Bulpitt forcing Telford to concede a short corner with his forward play around the D. Following further pressure from Cannock the ball fell to Callum Swinnerton-Ions whose shot hit the back of the net.

CANNOCK LADIES 3RD XI 2 SUTTON LADIES 3RD XI 5

Cannock Ladies 3rd team slipped to their first defeat of the new season after playing on a very warm morning in Sutton.

Goals from captain Stacy Mound and Emma Walker were not enough as the home side scored five. The game provided a learning curve for the young Cannock side as they prepare for their opening league game against Dudley on Saturday (September 17).

LICHFIELD LADIES 1ST XI 2 MATLOCK 2

With league hockey only three weeks away Lichfield took on Premier Division Matlock.

Matlock settled quickly into their stride and took an early lead. Lichfield did not panic and a perfect short corner routine finished off by Lydia Riley brought the game level.

In an evenly matched game both teams created chances and Lichfield took the lead early in the second half with a six-player move finished off by Ellie Keating with a deft flick over the keeper.

A lapse in concentration by the team enabled Matlock to draw level and they pushed hard to score the winner. Lichfield's defence held strong with some excellent saves by Ellie Witton.

Toby Lomas and David Eastland were among the scorers as the Men's 4th team won 3-2 at Stourport in a friendly.

Young players have that Golden touch

CANNOCK youngsters Tom Morris and Arjan Drayton-Chana both earned Gold medals playing for their country at u-18 level in the school games held at Sheffield. After beating Scotland 13-0, Ulster 4-3 and Wales 8-4, Morris finished as joint top scorer in the competition with six goals while Drayton-Chana was himself on the scoresheet four times. Both lads played a huge part in their country's success and both will play a huge part in Cannock's quest for success this coming season

Howard's way is to score a late match-winning try

RUGBY

WEDNESBURY 28 RUGELEY 2NDS 35

RUGELEY 2nds travelled to Wednesbury this week in what became a very fast and furious paced game.

But Wednesbury started the game with furious intent and scored their first try within seven minutes, shocking the visitors into a pace that has been rarely seen of late in the Rugeley side.

Rugeley quickly responded with a counter try by old boy Barry Newton, whose 28 years experience proved to be of value.

Once again Wednesbury returned with pace and power putting the Rugeley side under a great deal of pressure resulting in a penalty right under the visitors' posts bringing the score to 8-7 to the home team.

Rugeley once again snapped into life, and with a mistake or two by the home team, man of the Match Michael Wilkes took full advantage of the home team's apparent inexperience by retrieving the ball and running the full length of the pitch to score the first of his two tries of the day.

Rugeley's oldest serving player on the day was 54-year-old Steven Keys has played continuously for 29 seasons was instrumental in Rugeley's third try of the day when he set up the ball for his fledgling son Matty to once again run 40 metres to score a try under the home posts.

At the restart the game was played at the same furious pace, although in the break the home team had changed a number of their forwards, meaning Rugeley were unable to dominate the scrum as they had done in the first period. A brief lack of discipline by Rugeley resulted in Martin de Ridder being made to attend the sin bin and Wednesbury took full advantage as in that 10 minute period of play the home side racked up an impressive 13 points bringing the score line to 28 -all.

The game continued at its most furious, both sides had a game to win and the clock was ticking at what seemed to be the same fast pace.

Then out of nowhere came Sam Howard running the full length of the pitch with opposition in tow to score what became the winning try for the visitors. Matty Keys played an outstanding game by converting all the day's tries for the visitors and giving Rugeley the win they had worked so hard for and ultimately deserved.

Game soured by injury to second row Turner

SUTTON COLDFIELD 41 LICHFIELD 7

THIS was the first away league game of the season, and Lichfield knew they'd be up against it with pre-season title favourites Sutton the opponents.

Playing into a strong wind, Lichfield were quickly on the back foot. The powerful home side surged ahead with three tries in a one sided opening 10 minutes. The Myrtle Greens were guilty of affording Sutton far too much respect and space, which they exploited ruthlessly.

A brief period of first half resistance followed and Sutton only managed one further score before the break, tighthead prop Sean Harrison rounding off a sustained spell of try line pressure.

Dave Bassett's men were finally starting to warm to their task. Tom Paulson came to the fore with a strong second half display, while scrum half Cotterhill was a constant nuisance around the fringes.

With the wind at their backs, Lichfield were given plenty of opportunities to counter. Sutton were unable to maintain their impressive early structure and the game became stretched. Finally, the away side could look to move the ball, penetrate the gain line and give something back to the travelling fans. Cotterhill was rewarded with a fine solo try in the 70th minute, converted by Greg Massey.

The second half certainly served up a far more even contest. Sutton could only add two more tries to push their overall tally up to 40. An improved second half from the visitors was to be soured however as second row Turner was forced off with a serious looking shoulder injury.

Walsall are the visitors to Cooke Field this Saturday, kick off at 3pm.

Run of defeats ended as Slater finds target

CHASETOWN 2 FRICKLEY ATHLETIC 1, SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 10

CHASETOWN FC

CHASETOWN ended a run of three consecutive defeats with a well-deserved victory at The Scholars Ground.

The Scholars could not have wished for a better start as Ramone Stephens was pushed in the back by David Cyrus, following a cross from Mark Branch, and referee Mr Fox had no hesitation pointing to the penalty spot, despite the protestations of the Frickley left-back.

Dean Perrow edged a goal nearer to reaching his 100th Chasetown goal during this season by despatching the spot-kick powerfully to goalkeeper Adam Billard's right, but despite getting his finger tips to the ball, the Frickley custodian was unable to prevent the home side from taking the lead.

In a first half devoid of clear cut chances, the Scholars closest effort came seven minutes before the interval. Winger Jordan Johnson, on loan from AFC Telford was lively throughout his full debut and forced Billard into a smart save.

Frickley brought Ryan Price into action for the first time five minutes into the second half when James Ashmore tried his luck from long range but Price was straight behind the shot, looking to keep his first clean sheet of the season at the ninth attempt.

The Scholars passing was far more fluent than of late, and with Chris Slater pushed up into midfield and Ben Jevons into the forward line, Charlie Blakemore's men were looking likely to increase their lead.

On 54 minutes, Billard kept out a Ben Jevons shot at the near post, following some neat build-up play. However, against the run of play, the West Yorkshire side were level just after the hour mark. Leon Henry showed some pace down the Chasetown right flank and cut in before delivering an inch perfect cross to Ryan Mallon who beat Price with a composed finish from inside the penalty area.

Chasetown regained the lead within seven minutes of conceding. Darren Stride and Ben Jevons got the move under way, setting up Dean Perrow on the edge of the box, and, as he was crowded out, Perrow slipped a precise pass out to Ramone Stephens. he passed the defender and whipped in a first time cross to the far post where Chris Slater, who previously had only scored one Chasetown goal, arrived at the far post to volley the ball past Billard.

Frickley left themselves with a mountain to claim when substitute Jack Watts, who had only been on the field 17 minutes, was sent off for elbowing Matty Cohen.

The Scholars went for the jugular and how it remained 2-1 was anyone's guess.

WINNING RETURN IS MOST WELLCOMME

HEDNESFORD TOWN FC

ASHTON UNITED 1 HEDNESFORD TOWN 2, SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 10

HEDNESFORD Town returned to winning ways in the league after a Nick Wellecomme brace saw them claim a 2-1 victory over Ashton United.

Following defeat against Rushall Olympic earlier in the week Rob Smith made three changes to his side, with Elliott Durrell returning straight to the side after a month out on loan at Evesham United, while also reverting to a 4-4-2 formation.

It was the Pitmen who struck first in just the ninth minute. Jamey Osborne was able to make strides down the right-hand side and his cross was perfectly headed home by Wellecomme into the far corner of the net.

Hednesford continued to press the home side and doubled their lead in the 19th minute. Midfielder Chris Clements pounced on a loose ball and after driving forward into the box he squared to Wellecomme who was left with the simplest of finishes into an unguarded net.

On the half hour mark Ashton got themselves back into it when a ball over the top caught out the Hednesford defence and home striker Peter Wright was able to latch onto and finish neatly across Dan Crane and into the corner of the net.

The second half saw the game flow from end to end and the Pitmen thought that they had earned a penalty in the 71st minute, only for Osborne to be booked for an apparent dive . There was a nervy moment for Town with 10 minutes to go when Ashton's Aaron Burns looping header went just over the bar. The Pitmen had two chances to wrap up all three points, first when Jay Denny's low left-footed effort was just kept out before Wellecomme broke clear in the final minute only to be denied by Terry Smith in the Ashton goal.

But in the end it didn't matter as the Pitmen saw out time to claim the three points.

Vics' unbeaten record goes one over the eight

NORTHWICH VICTORIA 3 CHASETOWN 1, TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 13

A DISAPPOINTING evening in Cheshire saw Chasetown slip to a 3-1 defeat to a lively Northwich Victoria.

Despite a good show from the Scholars in the first quarter of the game, the unbeaten Vics proved too strong as they controlled proceedings later in the evening en route to a ninth fixture without defeat.

Chasetown had the first chance of a chilly evening when Ben Jevons cut in from the left in the second minute but Vics keeper Ben Hinchcliffe prevented him from shooting.

Dean Perrow looked sharp up front, and, having made a goal-scoring appearance for the reserves the previous weekend Danny Smith made his first team comeback when he replaced the struggling Ramone Stephens on 27 minutes.

One minute later, though, the hosts were in front when a powerful attack down the centre caught out the Scholars defence and Wayne Riley was able to slot home.

On the half hour their lead was doubled when Andy Westwood – making his first start for the senior side – blocked an initial attack from the right. The ball rebounded to Riley who sliced home his second across Scholars keeper Ryan Price into the far corner.

The Vics could have added a third on 38 minutes but Price was on hand to save from close range, while Perrow's low effort three minutes later went straight to Hinchcliffe.

The home side began the second half in lively fashion, going close with a cross from the right on 50 minutes, but it was the Scholars who would pull one back two minutes later when some great work by Westwood saw him set up Perrow who shot across Hinchcliffe into the far corner with Jevons getting the final touch.

Chasetown came close to an equaliser on 73 minutes when Hinchcliffe tipped a Branch free kick around the post after substitute Smith had flicked on.

However, the dam cracked again on 83 minutes as Michael Clarke fired the third Northwich goal past Price to make certain of the victory.

Chasetown now turn their attention to the first qualifying round of the FA Cup as they host Alvechurch at the Scholars Ground this Saturday. Kick off is at 3pm.

Gary makes Hay with goal on debut

HEDNESFORD TOWN 1 MATLOCK TOWN 1, TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 13

HEDNESFORD Town debutant Gary Hay scored within the opening five minutes to give his new side the lead and, but for the width of a post, would have secured victory for the Pitmen in the second half.

Despite recording their second straight home draw, the Pitmen's unbeaten home run now stands at 18 matches and the Keys Park outfit sit in fourth position after Tuesday's results with an encouraging point's tally of 20 from their opening ten matches. Rob Smith's side started quickly and Hay, drafted in from neighbours Chasetown, opened his Pitmen account with a well-placed header from a deep left footed cross by centre back Chris Shaw on five minutes.

Liam King scooped a shot over the bar for the visitors with 10 minutes gone and, despite Matlock Town having slightly more possession, Hednesford looked comfortable with their lead.

Chris Bettney curled a free kick from distance straight at Dan Crane before, on 39 minutes, King found space 20 yards out and his wickedly deflected off the shoulder of Pedro Monteiro and looped into the net. Cheyenne Dunkley saw a goal disallowed for a push on the stroke of half time and it was the Pitmen who created the best chance of the second period when Chris Clements dummied for Nick Wellecomme to sprint clear and square to Hay, who did everything right but saw his shot smack the upright.

Matlock looked happy with an away point and, despite the best efforts of substitutes Danny Quinn and Marvin Robinson, Hednesford couldn't force their customary late goal and the points were shared.

Hay, aged 35, has previously plied his trade at Alvechurch, Willenhall Town, Bromsgrove Rovers and AFC Telford United. he moved to Chasetown in December 2009.

Boss Smith believes he will bring experience to the squad. "I have worked with Gary in the past and rate him highly," he said. "He is excellent at holding the ball up and looking for support and can be a good outlet under defensive pressure."

The Pitmen are in FA Cup action at Redditch on Saturday (September 17), in a first qualifying round tie, kick off at 3pm. In the Birmingham Senior Cup first round, the Pitmen visit Willenhall Town on October 18, kick off at 7.45pm

Comfortable progress for Hayes

FA VASE PRELIMINARY ROUND – SPORTING KHALSA 0 HEATH HAYES 4

HEATH HAYES FC

A BRACE each from Dave Waple and Karl Wallis saw Heath Hayes through to the next round of The FA Vase.

The home side started very strongly and it took a couple of smart saves from Adam Jenkins to thwart the dangerous Danny Campbell. However Hayes took the lead on 10 minutes with their first meaningful attack. Chris Geldart, who was the best player on view, had a crisp effort which was adjudged to have been handled by Joe Wesley. Waple confidently despatched the resulting penalty.

Hayes increased their lead on the half hour and again it was Geldart who was the instigator.

Lee Stretton played a good ball into the right hand corner and Geldart produced a brilliant bit of skill to shake off two defenders before delivering a perfect cross for Waple to head home. On the stroke of half time, Wallis sprang the offside trap to coolly fire home and affectively kill off the tie.

Wallis added the fourth on 55 minutes, heading home a good cross from Luke Jones. Geldart came close to getting the goal his efforts deserved but was denied by the woodwork.

All in all, this was a satisfactory performance from Heath Hayes who played the game minus several key players out through injury and suspension.
